SIX-STAR SHIPS, STELLAR AMENITIES.

What a joy to sail the six-star ships of Regent Seven Seas Cruises. Being mid-sized, the ships of Regent Seven Seas Cruises; Seven Seas Voyager, Seven Seas Mariner and Seven Seas Navigator can easily cruise where larger vessels simply cannot. Their ideal size also allows for impeccable personal service, compliments of the extraordinarily high staff-to-guest ratio. With enhancements that include a more casual dress policy, an indulgent Canyon Ranch SpaClub®, and distinctive Concierge-Level amenities, guests can expect a cruise without equal.

SEVEN SEAS VOYAGER

A trailblazer in the exclusive world of all-suite, all-balcony ships, Seven Seas Voyager exceeds even the loftiest expectations for luxury. Considering her size, the amenities are surprisingly plentiful and include four main dining venues where you can dine wherever, whenever and with whomever you choose. With 447 international crew members attending to a maximum of but 700 guests, personal service is exceedingly indulgent throughout.

SEVEN SEAS MARINER

The world's first all-suite, all-balcony ship, Seven Seas Mariner also earned the distinction of being the first vessel to offer dining by Le Cordon Bleu® of Paris in Signatures, one of four open-seating restaurants. Hallmarks include generous amenities and a welcome spaciousness. Catering to only 700 guests, her staff-to-guest ratio of 1 to 1.6 ensures the absolutely highest level of personal service.

SEVEN SEAS NAVIGATOR

Seven Seas Navigator has few equals, as all accommodations are suites with ocean views, the majority with private balconies. Her 490 guests enjoy an unusual level of luxury and some of the highest space and service ratios at sea. Additionally, her three restaurants, including the iconic Prime 7 steakhouse, allow you to dine wherever, whenever and with whomever you choose, at no additional charge.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises reserves the right to withdraw and/or cancel a cruise or cruise tour or to make changes in the itinerary and hotel accommodations whenever, in its sole judgment, conditions warrant. In the event of charters of the vessels, truces, lockouts, riots or stoppage of labor from whatever cause or for any other reason whatsoever, the Owner or Operator of the vessels identified in the current brochure may, at any time, cancel, advance or postpone any scheduled cruise or cruise tour and may, but is not obligated to, substitute another vessel or itinerary and Regent Seven Seas Cruises shall not be liable for any loss whatsoever to Guests by reason of any such cancellation, advancement or postponement. AIR/SEA PROGRAM

The Regent Seven Seas Cruises Air/Sea Program is available from the designated gateway cities shown and is subject to availability at the time of booking. Supplemental fees apply for non-designated gateway cities. All air service is based on Economy Class travel using the carriers and routing of Regent Seven Seas Cruises choice. Regent Seven Seas Cruises reserves the right to use charter air service where applicable. As the airfares negotiated by Regent Seven Seas Cruises are very restricted, all tickets issued are non-endorsable and cannot be exchanged for another carrier or alternative routing. Any charges that result from a ticket alteration being made by or on behalf of the Guest will be the sole responsibility of the Guest. All airline tickets issued by Regent Seven Seas Cruises are refundable only to Regent Seven Seas Cruises and are considered part of the total cruise or cruise tour fare. Preliminary flight itineraries will be available 75 days prior to sailing. Some airlines restrict the accumulation or use of Frequent Flyer miles in conjunction with fares used by cruise lines.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises reserves the right to choose the air carrier and routing from each gateway city and the right to change airline routing for any reason and/or re-route Guests without prior notice to the nearest departure city if adequate air service is unavailable. Occasionally, due to scheduling conflicts, an enroute overnight might be necessary. Should this be the case, Regent Seven Seas Cruises will advise you or your travel agent about this at the time of confirming your air schedule. Unless otherwise specified in the cruise program description, there may be costs associated with the events described and will be the responsibility of the Guest. Enroute overnights as described are subject to change/cancellation due to changes in air scheduling.

All Guests who elect not to participate in Regent Seven Seas Cruises standard Air/Sea Program or do not purchase transfer arrangements from Regent Seven Seas Cruises will be responsible for their own transfer arrangements to and from the ship. A credit is available for guests not utilizing the Air Inclusive Program. The Destination Services desk can assist with post-cruise transfer arrangements once Guests are onboard. Regent Seven Seas Cruises offers all Air/Sea Guests complimentary transfers to and from the airport/ship in conjunction with the air program on the day of the ship's embarkation/ disembarkation, with the exception of circumstances where date deviations are confirmed by Regent Seven Seas Cruises.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is not responsible for any expenses or costs incurred as a result of uncontrolled events, including but not limited to strikes, changes, delays and inclement weather as they relate to the ship's schedule or by any change in schedules or routing by the Guest, travel agent or airline. Any flight change requests made within 60 days of departure, such as a new Air/Sea booking or changes to an existing booking, including name changes may be subject to a fee.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

Regent Seven Seas Cruises reserves the right to choose the air carrier, routing and city airport from each gateway city. Any changes made to an issued airline ticket will incur an administrative change fee. Any additional costs including penalties for cancellations/ rebookings will be made at the Guest's expense. All airline tickets issued by Regent Seven Seas Cruises are refundable only to Regent Seven Seas Cruises. Regent Seven Seas Cruises has no responsibility for altered travel plans caused by airline delays or for any act, omission or event occurring while not on board. Regent Seven Seas Cruises cannot confirm airline seat assignments, add frequent flyer numbers to airline records or request special meals. These services should be arranged by the guest's travel agent directly with the airline. Regent Seven Seas Cruises has no responsibility for excess baggage fees levied by the airline.

OPTIONAL HOTEL STAYS, OVERLAND PROGRAMS AND LAND PROGRAMS

Regent Seven Seas Cruises offers Guests the option to purchase hotel stays or land programs/shore excursions. These programs are subject to cancellation if a minimum number of participants is not reached. If a pre-/post-cruise program is cancelled by Regent Seven Seas Cruises, Guests who have booked their air through the Regent Seven Seas Cruises Air Program, and do not choose to accept the new offer, will have their flight changed to Regent Seven Seas Cruises air between their gateway city and the ship without incurring a change fee. Regent Seven Seas Cruises cannot be held responsible for any independent travel costs incurred if a land program, tour or private arrangement made through Regent Seven Seas Cruises is cancelled due to participation minimums not being met. Changes to flight availability, itinerary and program are subject to change without previous notice. Change in programs itinerary or content, or cancellation by Regent Seven Seas Cruises of any of these programs' does not constitute grounds for your cancellation of the voyage.

THE FOLLOWING CANCELLATION PENALTIES APPLY:
