ALLURE of the SEASSM

July 19, 2011

Dear *Allure of the Seas*SM Guest,

I am writing to provide you with important information regarding our port call to Falmouth, Jamaica.

Since 2008, Royal Caribbean International has been working with the government of Jamaica to build a brand new cruise destination – Historic Falmouth, Jamaica. In addition to all the history that Falmouth has to offer, the port is ideally situated between two of Jamaica's existing cruise ports – Ocho Rios and Montego Bay. This optimal location means that guests visiting Falmouth will be able to take advantage of the best tours and shore excursions of northern Jamaica. For example east of Falmouth lies the famous Dunn's River Falls, Dolphin Cove, Mystic Mountain, and various adventure tours. To the west are Rose Hall, Mountain Valley River Rafting, and a selection of beach tours. And within 15 minutes of the port is the Martha Brae River Rafting, as well as the Good Hope Estate. Our Shore Excursion staff would be happy to assist you with more information on the various activities available from Falmouth.

As you know, we are scheduled to call on Falmouth, Jamaica on Wednesday, July 20th. This particular cruise is extremely special as *Allure of the Seas*SM will be among some of the first ships to call on Falmouth, and we hope you share our excitement and enthusiasm. You will be part of Falmouth history as not only one of the first Royal Caribbean guests, but as one of the very first cruise ship guests to disembark there and experience the ongoing development of this new port. Once we arrive in Falmouth, you may notice that some areas of the port are still under construction. Therefore, to ensure your safety when passing through these construction areas, we ask that all guests pay special attention to the designated pathways when walking to and from the shuttle buses.

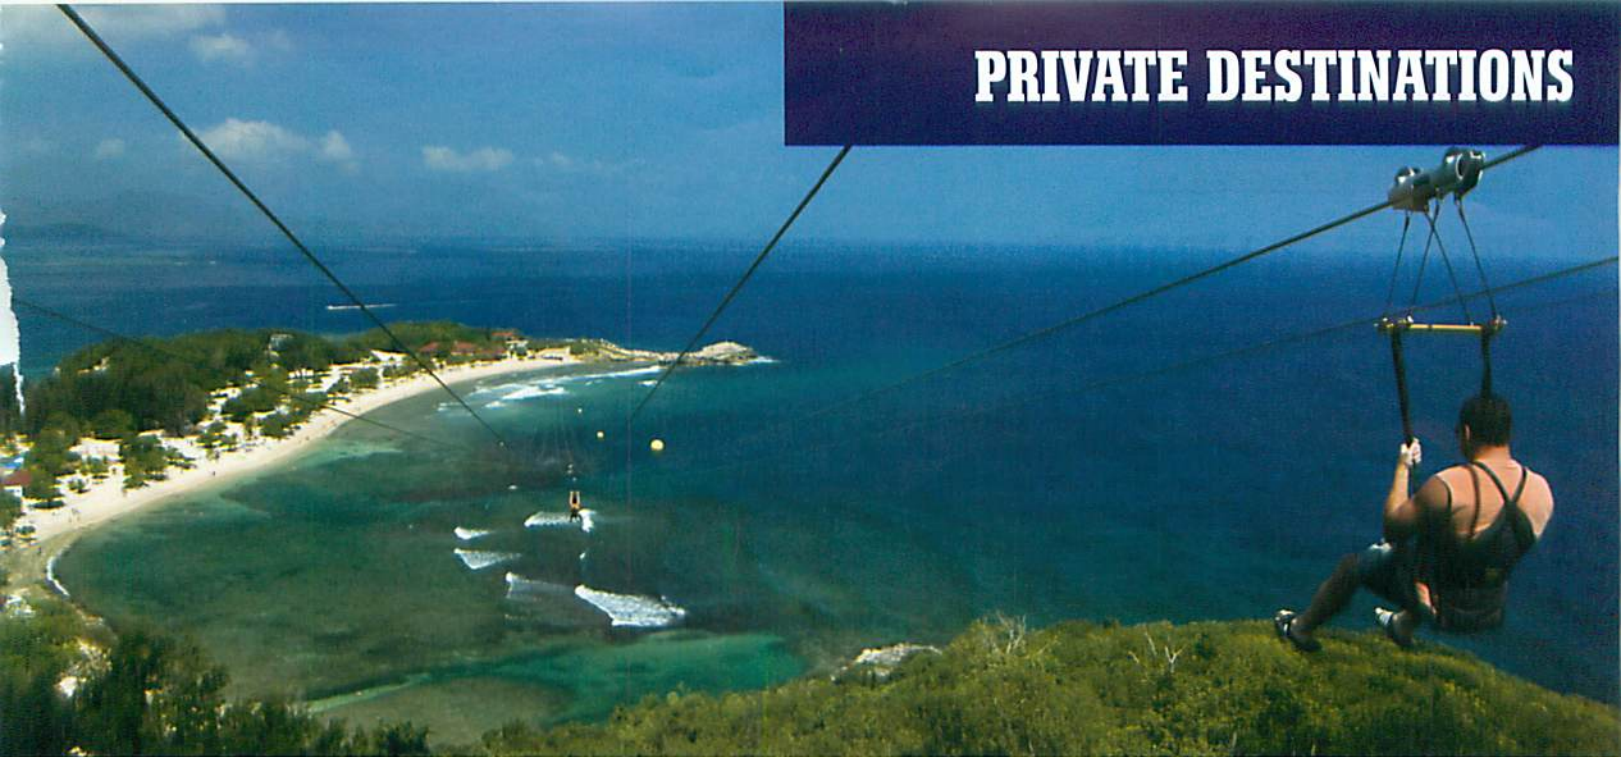

Despite all the construction work that is still ongoing, all services and entertainment will be provided. This includes mento bands, a steel pan band with carnival dancers, a live reggae band and traditional Tambo dancers and drummers. In addition, local Jamaican artisans and craft vendors will be displaying and selling their craft items. But since the shops at Falmouth will not be operational in time for our port call, we will also be providing complimentary shuttle service to Rose Hall, a shopping area 20 minutes away from the port. Please note that the shuttle service is from the terminal to the Rose Hall shops and back only. There will be no taxis or follow on transportation available to any other location from the Rose Hall shops.

Thank you for joining us onboard *Allure of the Seas*SM. We hope you enjoy your visit to Falmouth, as well as the other wonderful ports on our itinerary. Our entire onboard team welcome you onboard wish you a wonderful vacation experience.

Sincerely,

Captain Johnny Faevelen
Master
*Allure of the Seas*SM

PRIVATE DESTINATIONS

CUT LOOSE IN LABADEE

What's Labadee? It's Royal Caribbean's private paradise, filled with pristine beaches, easy walking trails and lush tropical vistas. During your daylong visit, there's plenty of time for a SeaTrek water sport of your choice... from a hair-raising ride on a personal watercraft to relaxing all day on a floating beach mat.

For more information, check out the interactive menu on RCTV in your stateroom, visit the Explorations.SM Desk or drop by the SeaTrek Dive shop on deck 11.

WELCOME TO LABADEESM

Although originally said to have been discovered by Christopher

Columbus in 1492, it wasn't until Royal Caribbean discovered it five centuries later that it became the secluded tropical paradise that it is today. The two main historical monuments on LabadeeSM are Nellie's Place and the Old Bell Tower. Legend has it that Nellie was an Englishwoman who arrived at the time of the buccaneers and set up a trading post and tavern for visiting ships and their crews. The Old Bell Tower was erected to announce their arrival. The actual bell in the tower was plundered long before the arrival of Royal Caribbean, but was previously used to ring out across the hillsides and let local farmers know when to bring their produce down to the quay.

YOUR PERFECT DAY IN LABADEE

A wide variety of activities and interests await you in beautiful Labadee. The picture perfect coastal location of Labadee brings out the inner adventure seekers, the explorers, and the beach lovers in each of us. Here are some suggestions that will allow you to make the most of the time on your private destination in Labadee.

The Adventurer: Are you the type of person who enjoys adventure and seeks thrills?

Begin your adventure by experiencing the zip of the Dragon's Breath Flight Line or parasailing over 300ft above Labadee. Both provide a rush and a bird's eye view of our peninsula and beaches. You can feel the adrenalin on a Wave Jet Tour or ride a High Speed Coastal Adventure. Finish off your stay with the thrill of the Dragon's Tail Alpine Coaster, racing down the mountain of Labadee. All of these experiences will satisfy your desire for adventure.

The Explorer: Do you investigate unknown regions, have a thirst for knowledge?

Venture into the past or learn about the present day Haiti by making one of these choices. Enjoy a walking tour of our site with a local guide or by exploring the rich history by sea on a cultural experience. Explorers can also kayak back in time to a nearby village. Any of these choices will quench your thirst for knowledge and the unknown.

The Beach Lover: Do you like dipping your toes in the sand with an occasional swim, relax for the day on a beach or enjoy a leisurely walk?

Begin your day with a leisurely walk or a tram ride to explore the bountiful beaches. Once you have found the perfect spot, get a floating beach mat to enjoy the warm water or simply just relax among the palms on a lounge chair while enjoying your favorite cocktail from a beach bar waiter. We also have several beach escapes available through excursions. Time to feel the sand between your toes!

To enjoy the calm waters of Labadee, Columbus Cove and Nellie's Beach have been allocated as the best swimming areas. For Lounging and capturing sunrays, Dragon's Tail is a vast beach with a panoramic view of the Atlantic Ocean.

Please consult the map for tour booking locations of the activities mentioned above. Some restrictions apply on certain activities.

General Information

ACCESSIBILITY: Complimentary beach wheelchairs are available for guests with disabilities at the Information Center. Wheelchairs are easily accommodated at all food and beverage venues, restrooms, beaches & tram.

HEALTH AND FIRST AID: Because the tropical sun's rays can be very deceptive, even on cloudy days, we suggest the use of sun-screen and, if necessary, light protective clothing such as T-shirts and cover-ups. It is advisable to have some footwear as a protection against the hot sand and pathways. Try to avoid strenuous activity on shore or in the water after eating. To reduce the risk of dehydration, drink plenty of liquids. Our First Aid Station is manned throughout the day.

SWIMMING: For Safety and enjoyment, Columbus Cove and Nellie's beach have been allocated for swimming. Dragon's beach has been designated for Sunbathing.

SHOPPING: Labadee offers two types of shopping experiences.

THE ARTISAN'S MARKET AND THE ARTISIAN'S VILLAGE: ready to bargain, the vendors

ALLURE OF THE SEAS

FALMOUTH

JAMAICA

You might not think so at first glance, but little Falmouth was an economic and shipping powerhouse and center for dramatic social change during the English Colonial Period. Founded and named Martha Brae Point in 1769 by local English planter, Thomas Reid, Falmouth became the transshipment hub for the sugar plantations covering the hills of the North Coast of Jamaica. Edward Barrett, a wealthy English planter, strongly influenced the early development of Falmouth. From the wharfs of Falmouth, sugar, molasses, rum and coffee were sent to England while ships carrying African slaves and all the necessities of 18th century colonial life dropped anchor in the bustling port town.

Falmouth's Historic District is one of the few remaining English colonial-style areas to be found in the Caribbean. In order to protect historic buildings from demolition, in 1966 the government of Jamaica wisely declared the district to be a National Monument. In the intervening years the Falmouth Heritage Renewal Organization, the Falmouth Restoration Company, together with several U.S. and international universities, organizations and foundations have worked to preserve the architectural heritage and patrimony of Falmouth. The task is advancing slowly as international donations are received. Falmouth Heritage Renewal is thoughtfully training young local men in the arts of wood crafting, masonry and other long lost traditional skills in order to authentically restore historic buildings.

At its peak Falmouth was one of the busiest ports in Jamaica. Over time the harbor silted and shipping traffic relocated to Port Royal in Kingston Harbor on the south coast of Jamaica. Today Falmouth is a quiet town of 4,000 residents. The advent of a half-million visitors annually from cruise ships is bringing Falmouth to the attention of the world's historical societies. In 2009, for example, Charles, Prince of Wales visited Falmouth to explore and express his interest in and support of the historic preservation effort.

The new cruise port was designed with a state-of-the-art infrastructure, while adopting Georgian-Era English architecture that blends seamlessly into historic Falmouth, Jamaica.

HISTORY

On May 5, 1494 during the admiral's 2nd voyage to the New World Christopher Columbus and his men were the first Europeans to come ashore on Jamaica. Near the center of the island's north coast, originally named Santa Gloria Bay and now known as St. Ann's, Columbus and his men were first met by the Arawak Indians and their volley of spears and arrows. This was soon followed with peace offerings of fruit. Columbus thanked the Indians by promptly claiming their island in the name of Catholic Pope Alexander VI and King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain. Though a small colony was later established, as Jamaica had no gold, the Spanish showed little real interest in the island.

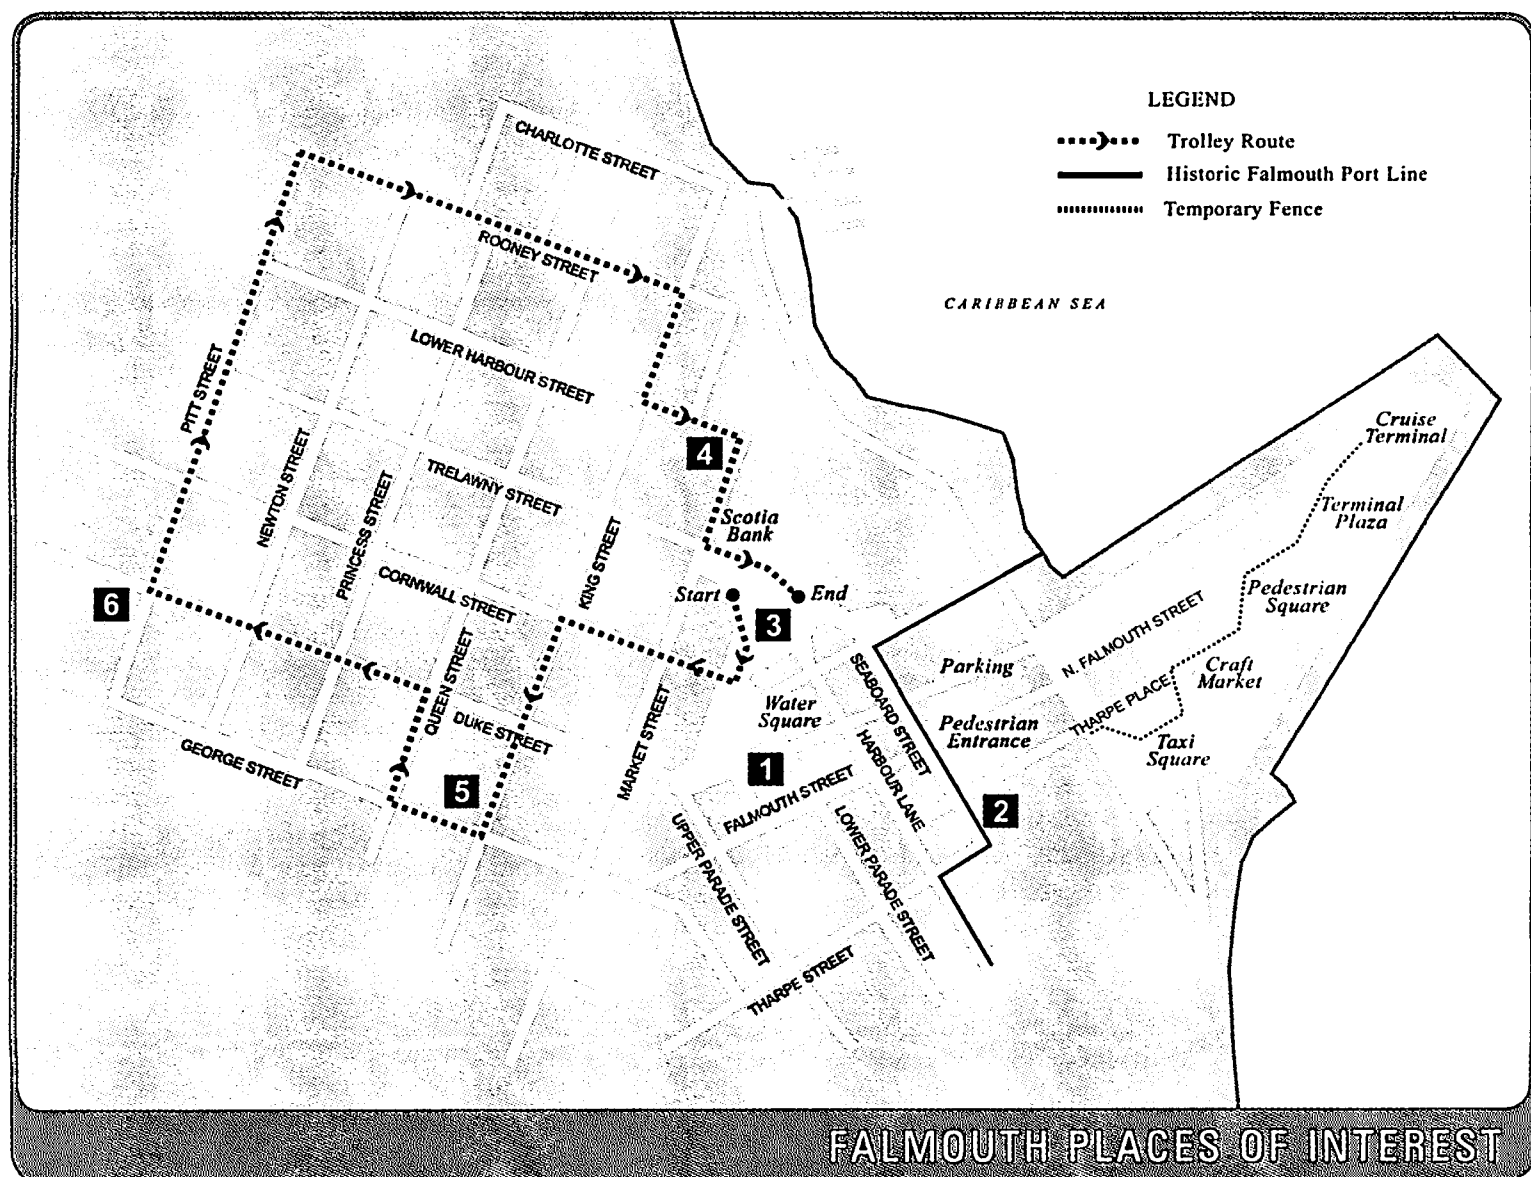

In an effort to save face after a humiliating defeat in their attempt to drive the Spanish out of Hispaniola Island (modern Haiti and the Dominican Republic), on May 10, 1655 British Admiral William Penn (father to William Penn, founder of the Pennsylvania colony) and General Robert Venables sailed into what would later be named Jamaica's Kingston Harbor. The Spanish fled but first they freed their slaves who thereupon headed for the safety of Jamaica's mountains. The admiral and general quickly returned to England to give Lord Protector Oliver Cromwell and Parliament the good news. Cromwell was so impressed and grateful he ordered the two men immediately stripped of their commands and thrown into the Tower of London on charges of abandoning their posts. Coming to be called "Maroons", from their mountain redoubts the escaped slaves of Jamaica harassed and attacked English plantations and settlements late into the 1700s.

With the establishment of the English colony on Jamaica came the large sugar plantations, the importation of thousands of additional African slaves and eventually, English "privateers". It should be remembered; seen from the Spanish galleons trying to deliver gold and silver laden to the Spanish King, English privateers were in fact pirates funded by the English King in exchange for a percentage of the loot. The combination of sugar and piracy made Jamaica a tremendously valuable asset to the English Crown till nearly the middle of the 1800s. But as the Georgian Plantation Era evolved into the Victorian Industrial Age the Empire and Jamaica also evolved. The economics of the plantation business was shrinking, especially when the slaves of Jamaica repeatedly rose in revolt against their masters.

On August 1, 1834 Britain's Parliament abolished slavery throughout the Empire. Transformation from bondage to freedom did not take place overnight. For the slaves of Jamaica a long, difficult and challenging transitional period followed. Over a century later, on August 6, 1962, Jamaica gained full independence from England and joined Britain's Commonwealth of Nations.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Falmouth has one of the most intact historic districts in Jamaica as very little development occurred in the town over the past 100 years. A lack of government funds and other pressing social issues in Jamaica resulted in many years of benign neglect. In recent years work has fortunately been initiated to preserve and restore the Georgian-Era architecture which dates back to the 1700s. Much work remains to be undertaken but the growing interest and support of individuals, charities, organizations, corporate and governmental entities will slowly restore the patrimony of Historic Falmouth.

1 The Albert George Market was built in the late 1800s. Long before the physical structure was erected this was the area of town where slaves were first allowed to sell their extra produce. The cast iron structure was manufactured in the UK and delivered by ship. It did not take long for the town's merchants, artisans, local planters and visiting sailors to frequent the innovative new market. One of the interesting rules enforced by the "Clerk of the Market" was that up till 1:00 PM all fresh fish had to be sold on this site. After 1:00 fish could be sold in other parts of town.

2 The Tharp House was built by the most prominent local planter, John Tharp. Mr. Tharp was one of the wealthiest men in Jamaica having interests in many aspects of the sugar trade. This included his own wharf where ships (some of them his) arrived carrying merchandise and slaves while other ships sailed off to England with sugar and coffee grown on area plantations.

3 The Town Hall and Courthouse was originally built in the early 1800s. Not only did it serve as the seat of law and government, the elegance of the building provided the perfect setting for banquets and balls held for the entertainment of Falmouth's upper crust. The original structure was destroyed by fire and this accurate duplicate was built in the 1920s.

4 The Barrett House belonged to one of the city's founding fathers, instrumental in the economic growth of Falmouth. Edward Barrett was a wealthy plantation owner with extensive business interests. Mr. Barrett was the great-grandfather of the famed 19th century English Victorian Era poet Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

5 The William Knibb Baptist Church was originally constructed in the mid 1800s and rebuilt in the mid 1900s. William Knibb was an influential Baptist missionary and preacher from England who, even under threat of arrest and death, did much towards securing Britain's abolition of slavery in Jamaica and throughout the empire. Following complete emancipation in 1838 Rev. Knibb helped build settlements for newly freed slaves. When the country celebrated 150 years of freedom in 1988, William Knibb was posthumously awarded Jamaica's Order of Merit, the nation's most distinguished civilian tribute. Reverend Knibb passed away at age forty-two. He and his family are laid to rest in the church cemetery.

6 St Peter's Anglican Church (England's State Church) was constructed in the late 1700s. It was the first sanctuary to be built in Falmouth and remains as one of the island's largest Anglican Churches. Until the mid 1830s no marriage could be ordained except by an Anglican minister and no slave could be baptized in the church without the consent of the slave master.

LOCAL CUISINE AND DRINK SPECIALTIES

Jamaica's traditional cuisine is a combination of West African, English, East Indian, French and Chinese ... with a touch of Spanish mixed in for good measure. A wide variety of delicious tropical fruit is grown on the island. Jerk pork or chicken is undoubtedly the island's signature dish. There are literally hundreds of different "jerk" recipes in Jamaica. Here are some favorite traditional dishes: Jerk Chicken has been marinated in a mixture of chopped onions, garlic, red Scotch Bonnet peppers, pimento, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, salt and pepper then combined with orange and lime juice, soy sauce and olive oil and slowly grilled over charcoal. In Jamaica pork is often cooked in the same fashion. Curried Goat is marinated with chopped onions, garlic, fresh thyme, scallions, seeded and finely minced red Scotch Bonnet peppers and curry powder. Combined in a large pot and covered with a splash of vegetable oil and water, the meat is stirred and simmered until tender. Callaloo and Salt-fish is a tasty dish where the cod has been sautéed in a mixture of pepper, thyme, garlic, onion and olive oil and served with a helping of boiled callaloo, a large green leafy vegetable. Beef Patties are a filling of cooked onions, peppers, curry, chili sauce, garlic and ground beef wrapped and baked in dough. Blue Draws, sometimes called Duckunoos, is a desert which came over to Jamaica with the slaves from West Africa. It is a combination of sweet potatoes, coconut, bananas, vanilla and brown sugar. It is cooked down into a thick pudding then individual portions are wrapped and tied in banana leaves and boiled.

Jamaica's Red Stripe beer was first brewed in the capital of Kingston in 1928. The cool, light and refreshing beer which so many enjoy today was developed in the late 1930's. Ting Ginger Beer is popular for its crisp, fresh taste.

SHOPPING FACILITIES

The shops at the pier and the open market in Falmouth have numerous vendors who offer a wide variety of handmade arts and crafts, jewelry and paintings. The fabrics and clothing are colorful and of course there are always plenty of souvenirs. Many of the vendors will bargain with customers which is half the fun of shopping in Jamaica. Remember, a smile and a friendly attitude will go a long way in helping to seal a nice deal.

LOCAL CURRENCY

The Jamaican dollar (JMD) is the country's currency. U.S. dollars and major credit cards are widely accepted.

The Post Office is located at the corner of Cornwall and Market Streets.

MCI: 1.800.888.8000

There is a Visitors Information facility available at the pier.

The Falmouth tourist trolley offers a 30 minute tour of Falmouth Town. Regular trolley departures leave from the Port Transportation Center. Please visit the Trolley kiosk at the Taxi Shelter building for departure times and to purchase tickets.

LANGUAGE

English is the official language of Jamaica. A local Creole dialect known as patois (a French word pronounced “pa-twa”) is widely spoken. Patois is a language which came about out of necessity during the slave era of the 1600s. The language combines West and Central African dialects with English. It was the form of communication between African slaves and their English speaking masters.

NOTES

Helpful Health Information

Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses – such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact – is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. We thank you in advance for making the Allure of the Seas a safe, happy and healthy ship.

DAY 3 Tuesday, July 19, 2011

WELCOME TO LABADEE OUR VERY OWN PRIVATE PARADISE

On the north coast of Haiti sits a tropical haven we can call our own. Set amid spectacular mountains and lush foliage, Labadee, our first port-of-call, is reserved exclusively for Royal Caribbean International guests. Though privately owned, this breathtakingly beautiful destination still retains much of its local color. In 1492, the island was discovered by Christopher Columbus on his first voyage to the New World. Originally named "La Isla Española", it was later colonized by the French, whose influence is still prevalent in both culture and language.

As you venture ashore to the white sandy beaches of Labadee, you'll undoubtedly appreciate its natural beauty. Spend the day basking in the sun, or engage in one of the many water sports available. Read on to learn more about all the fun things you can do while onshore.

Connect With The Locals

- Speak the language. While French and Creole are both the official languages in Haiti, most locals prefer to speak the island's patwa. Creole is a combination of mostly French vocabulary and grammar derived from various African languages. Here are few phrases that'll come in handy: Good morning: Bonjour / Good afternoon: Bonswa / Excuse me: Eskize Mwen / Please: Soutpri / Thanks: Mersi / You're welcome: Merite

Dear Guest:

Royal Caribbean International is proud to introduce a revolutionary new Luggage Valet and Onboard Check-In Service. This service provided by participating airlines will help expedite your departure from Fort Lauderdale Airport or Miami International Airport after your cruise vacation, as you will no longer need to check-in at the airport. Participating Airlines:

American Airlines, Continental, Air Tran, US Airways, Delta, Jet Blue and Southwest.
(Any connecting flight must be with the same airline)

Miami International Airport:

American Airlines, Continental, Air Tran, US Airways, Delta, and United Airlines.

Flights must depart after 11:30 am (from Fort Lauderdale) or after 2:00 pm (from Miami) on the day of the ship's arrival into Fort Lauderdale.

If you meet all of the above requirements and are interested in participating in this service, please complete the registration information on the backside of this form and return it to the Guest Services, Deck 5, no later than noon on Thursday.

Benefits of this service:

- Your departure time will be at approximately 8:00 am, once your bags have been cleared by Customs and Border Protection.
- Once you have departed the ship, you do not need to claim your luggage. You will simply go through the United States Customs & Border Protection checkpoint with only your carry-on bags. The next time you will see your luggage will be at your final airport destination.
- You will not need to check-in at the airport, since you would have been checked in here onboard.

Thank you for your participation in this new service. Should you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact the Guest Departure Officer through the Guest Services, Deck 5, or by dialing 0.

NOTICES

SMOKING – Allure of the Seas is primarily a non-smoking ship however we have designated areas onboard for our guests who do smoke. Smoking is only allowed on the portside of the outer Decks 15 & 16, at the after deck bar on Deck 17 forward, the upper level of Dazzles on Deck 9, a designated section in the Boleros Bar on Deck 5, on the starboard side and the bar area in Casino Royale on Deck 4 and in a designated area of the Bow & Stern Pub on Deck 5.

HELPFUL HEALTH INFORMATION – Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses – such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact – is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. We thank you in advance for making the Allure of the Seas a safe, happy and healthy ship.

DAY 6 Friday, July 22, 2011

WELCOME TO COZUMEL, MEXICO

The Conquistadors first saw Mexico from the shores of Cozumel while searching for gold. Today, visitors to the island continue to seek out gold and silver jewelry in the shops of San Miguel while having a great time in its many local bars and restaurants. Plus, the waters around Cozumel's sheltered coral reefs make this one of the best snorkeling areas in the world.

Shop, Dine and Enjoy Yourself

1. Practice rolling your R's. The Mexican people are known for their hospitality. Especially when you try to speak the language.
2. For the best buys, head downtown! Taxi fare is $7.00 per car load and the official taxi drop off is the Forum Shops. Shopping Karen will be there from 10:00 am - noon. Free Margaritas, free internet & extra deals for Allure guests at this time! Win jewelry and raffle prizes every half an hour! Win diamond jewelry!
3. Have a Margarita. On the rocks. With or without salt on the rim. Accompanied by a Mariachi band. Anyway you have it, it'll be the best you've ever had.
4. Try an authentic taco. Here in the Yucatan, many of the dishes use the same local ingredients once used by the Maya. Absolutely delicious.

- Salsa Sail Away Party
With our Latin Band Manati Salsa. A perfect way to end the day!

ENVIRONMENTAL TIDBIT

Allure of the Seas has an advanced wastewater purification system that actually cleans its wastewater before discharging it. How does it work? A biological reactor uses a good kind of bacteria to break down all the bad stuff. Cleaner water. Cleaner planet.

NOTICES

Helpful Health Information - Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses - such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact - is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. We thank you in advance for making the Allure of the Seas a safe, happy and healthy ship.

GO OUT WITH A BANG

- Climb to the top. If you haven't already, challenge yourself at the Rock Climbing Wall. Or try it again, and go a little higher.
- Get on the dance floor. Learn a new step. Show off your moves. Grab a partner. Or do a little freestyle.
- Savor every last bite. If you haven't already tried out one of the specialty restaurants, you might want to treat yourself to one last delicious dinner.
- Indulge yourself. With whatever it is that you love to do. Maybe it's a new hobby you picked up on the ship, or an old interest you never have time for back home. The day is yours to do whatever you please. Enjoy!

NOTICES

Helpful Health Information - Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses - such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact - is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. We thank you in advance for making the Allure of the Seas a safe, happy and healthy ship.

Smoking - Allure of the Seas is primarily a non-smoking ship however we have designated areas onboard for our guests who do smoke. Smoking is only allowed on the port side of the outer Decks 15 & 16, at the after deck bar on Deck 17 forward, the upper level of Dazzles on Deck 9, a designated section in the Boleros on Deck 5, on the starboard side and the bar area in Casino Royale on Deck 4 and in a designated area of Blaze on Deck 4 and in a designated area of the Bow & Stern on Deck 5.
