Fujairah

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

GENERAL INFORMATION The city of Fujairah is a bustling port and business center looking east towards the Gulf of Oman. The Emirate of Fujairah divides the country of Oman, into two sections.

Seven separate and independent emirates come together to create the UAE and Fujairah is the youngest and most geographically rugged. The region was a loose collection of sheikdoms and an important link on the ancient trade routes. Today the UAE maintains a vital role as an Arab leader on the world's political and economic stage.

HISTORY Of the seven emirates that make up the UAE, Fujairah is the only one that looks east out over the Gulf of Oman and the Arabian Sea. Fujairah is also the youngest of the seven emirates. Until the early 1950's the region of Fujairah made up part of the Emirate of Sharjah. This coastal area on the Arabian Peninsula has played a vital role over thousands of years in the connection and trade between East and West, India and Europe. But over the centuries relations were not always friendly as some countries were motivated by the building of empires.

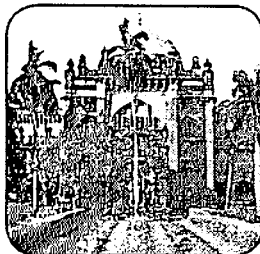

The first written mention of the Arabs seems to be by the classical Greek writer, Homer, around 1000 BC. Keep in mind that historians have always debated the date of Homer. An ancient Assyrian text from the mid 800's BC makes reference to a victory of the Assyrian King Shalmaneser III over certain Arab tribal chiefs. This is an ancient land with an ancient people that for all intents and purposes were unknown to Europeans up to the early 1500's AD.

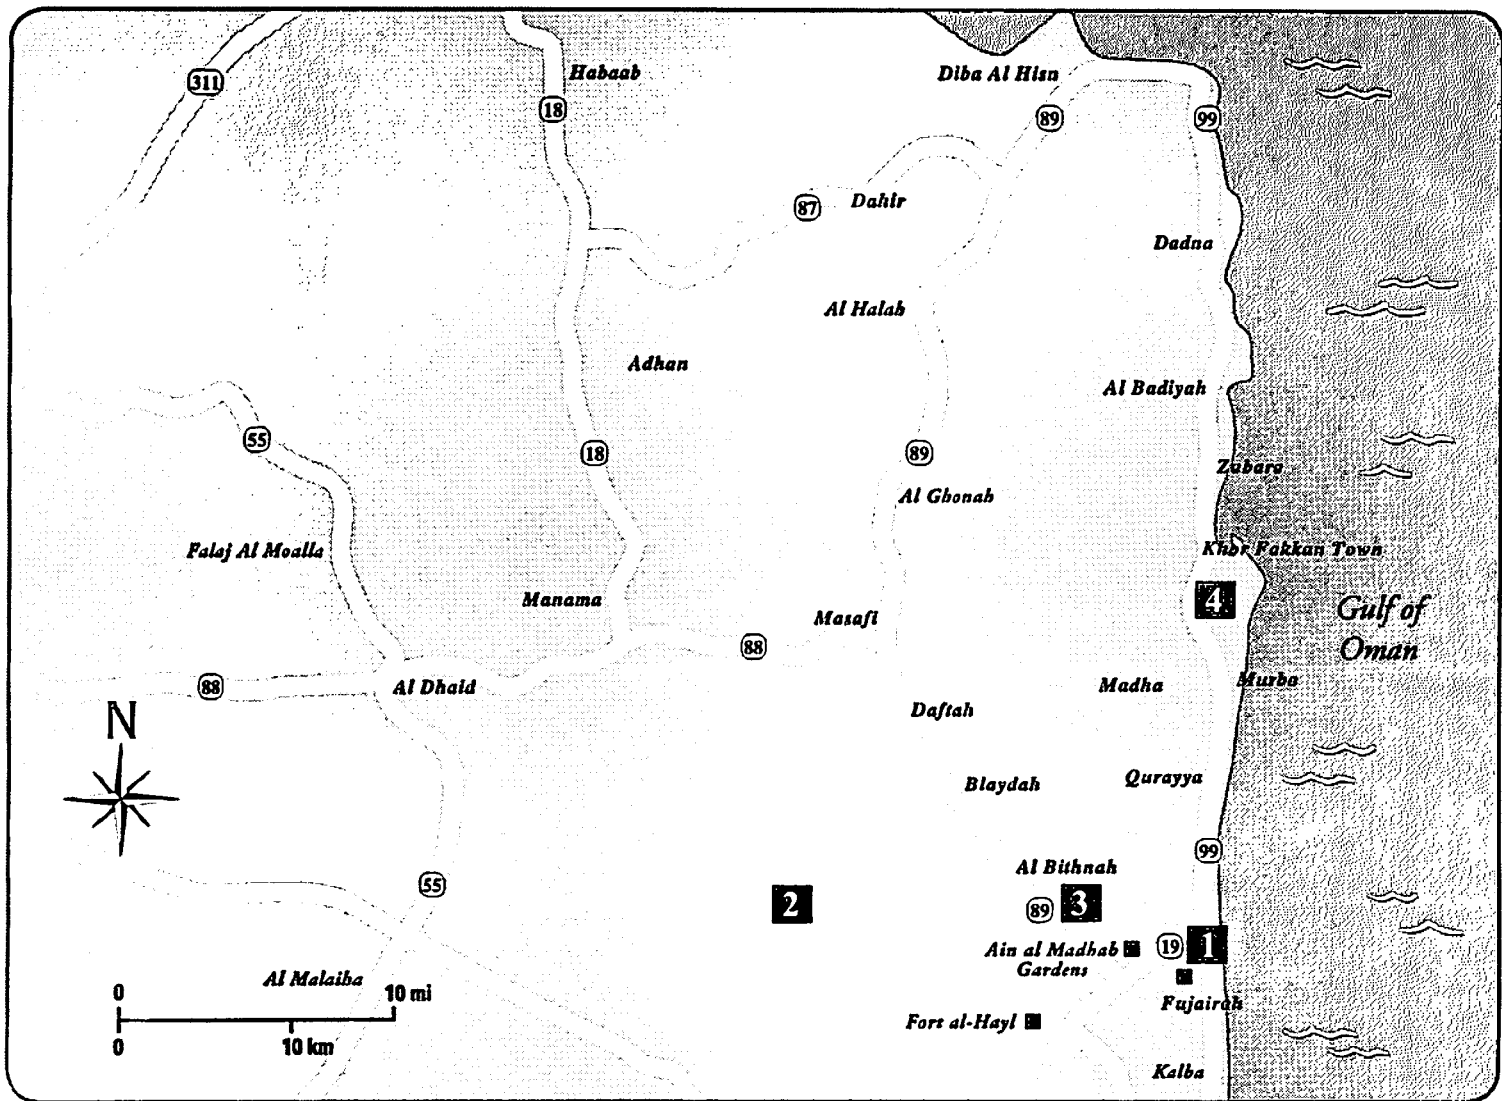

In 1507 Portuguese Captain Afonso de Albuquerque sailed his small fleet into the Gulf of Oman and the Straits of Hormuz. It was all about the wealth that would flow into the coffers of the Portuguese monarchy if they could bypass Arab traders and take control of the Indian Ocean and the Spice Islands. In 1515 Albuquerque conquered most of the Persian Gulf region and it remained under Portuguese control for the next century and a half.

By the early 1650's the Ottoman Empire had driven the Portuguese from the Persian Gulf, and the coast of what is the present day UAE became infested with pirates and smugglers. Despite European, Persian and Arab efforts, the pirates wrecked havoc upon international merchant ships in the Gulf as well as vessels sailing through the Straits of Hormuz. The pirates of this region, from the Oman Peninsula in the east to Qatar in the west, should not be compared with the type of buccaneers who sailed the Caribbean. For the men of the Persian Gulf's "Pirate Coast" it was not a matter of romantic swashbuckling adventures. It was a matter of survival for themselves and their families. This was a desperately poor area of pearl harvesting, agriculture, livestock herding, and fishing. Life was extremely difficult at best. Pirating was the result of need and desperation rather than greed.

In 1820 Great Britain used the power of her Royal Navy to convince the various sheikhs of the region to sign a treaty that led to England's assurance of protection in return for closer diplomatic relations and the cessation of attacks on merchant shipping. In a small yet important way it was the foundation and results of this treaty which helped unite the seven emirates a century and a half later, not only as an ancient people but as a new nation.

PLACES OF INTEREST

FUJAIRAH AREA PLACES OF INTEREST

1 Fujairah Fort was constructed in the late 1600's. It is reputed to be the UAE's oldest fortification. The mud-brick fort has recently undergone extensive renovation after having borne the ravages of three centuries and British Royal Navy bombardment just after the turn of the 20th century. Right next to the fortress is the Fujairah Museum. The museum relates the history of the city and region.

Beyond Fujairah

2 This is an amazingly rugged region. Beginning in the north of the Musandam Peninsula (a part of Oman) the starkly beautiful Hajar Mountains run south just inland from the coast of the Gulf of Oman. Their name in Arabic translates quite appropriately as "mountains of stone" and they are the highest points of land in all of the UAE. The Hajar Mountains are rough and wild, seemingly desolate and austere, cut with cavernous gorges and deep canyons. One of the most interesting things about this range is that hidden deep within some of the wadis, paleontologists have discovered fossilized evidence which shows that, perhaps as far back as 150 million years ago, these mountains were at the bottom of a warm sea. The most famous example of this is the 1,200-foot high outcropping known as "Jebel Maleihah" or "Fossil Rock".

3 The Bitnah Fort was built in the 1700's and stands guard over a strategic mountain pass. The oasis that surrounds the fort helps to make this a popular site for visitors.

4 The Bidya Mosque is believed to be one of the oldest mosques in the Emirates. It is thought to date back to the mid 1400's. Built of mud-brick and plaster, in the late 1900's the mosque underwent careful restoration under the direction of the UAE's Heritage and Antiquities Ministry with the cooperation of Australia's University of Sydney.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Fujairah and surrounding areas, we suggest you take one of our organized Shore Excursions. For information concerning your options, content and pricing, consult your Shore Excursion Brochure or contact the Shore Excursion Desk. When going ashore, be advised to take only items that are necessary and secure any valuables onboard.

LOCAL CUSTOMS One of the most rewarding things about having the opportunity to visit another country is learning about other social customs and traditions. As most countries, the Emirates has a well defined and long standing set of practices which help to characterize its citizens as a people and a nation. First-time visitors can not be expected to be experts in the intricacies of social interaction as practiced throughout the UAE. However, visitors learning about and making an effort to respect the rules of etiquette is always appreciated by the people of any host country. We have included a few examples of common etiquette as practiced in the United Arab Emirates and throughout much of the Muslim world:

It is common for Arab men to shake hands when meeting, greeting or leaving. Often, Arab gentlemen will hold the handshake longer than is common in the West. This is a sign of respect and friendship. Foreign gentlemen, if being introduced to a lady for the first time, should refrain from offering to shake her hand. Simply follow the lady's example. If she offers her hand, accept it politely.

In the Muslim tradition when having a meal or simply a cup of coffee or tea at a café it is proper to use the right hand. In the Arab world the left hand is considered unclean. This rule of etiquette should also be followed when accepting from or offering something to someone.

When in an Arab home or mosque shoes are always removed. The bottoms of an individual's shoes and the bottoms of their feet are considered unclean. They should not be exposed as this is considered insulting.

Men in the Gulf States wear a loose fitting ankle length tunic called a "kandura". It is most often light weight, white and made of cotton. On special occasions when more formal attire is called for, an outer robe called a "bisht" is worn over the kandura. The headdress, usually pure white or in a red and white checkered pattern is called a "guthra". Foreign men visiting the region are not expected to dress in traditional Arab fashion however shorts and sleeveless shirts are not socially acceptable.

Many of the women in the Gulf States, as well as other parts of the Muslim world, wear a black, full length, long sleeve, light weight garment known as an "abaya". Depending on the prevailing custom in each nation the abaya can be embroidered with beautiful design or remain without decoration. The ladies wear a headdress known as a "shayla".

Foreign women visiting the Emirates are not expected to wear the abaya but are strongly encouraged to refrain from wearing clothes that reveal shoulders, arms or legs.

Bargaining: It is all about value and desire. What is the item worth to you and how much is the merchant first asking for it? Merchants in the Mid-East have thousands of years of experience in trade and bargaining. In many of the countries of the Mid-East the ancient art of bargaining is not as much business as it is a type of social interaction...more of a dance than a duel. Keep a few simple things in mind. If it is a quality product then it is worth a fair price, especially if the merchant made it themselves. Let the proprietor start with the pricing then split it by half and hopefully you will meet somewhere in the middle. Keep in mind that if the shop keeper accepts your offer it is insulting not to complete the transaction. Always keep a good attitude and a friendly smile. Signs of respect go a very long way.

Tipping: Though many restaurants will add a service charge to the bill this does not necessarily reach the waiter. A 10-15% cash tip directly to the waiter is always appreciated. Taxis are not usually given a tip.

Local Cuisine: A variety of food, spices and recipes in the Emirates have been incorporated from all around the Mid-East and India. Seafood, goat, lamb and rice are traditional favorites. Machboos is a very spicy chicken and rice dish. Cardamom, cumin, coriander, turmeric and garam masala (a hot paste) with cinnamon, limes and lemon juice all add up to give this dish amazing levels of flavor. Shawarma is the Emirates' answer to fast food. It is pita bread stuffed with thinly sliced rotisserie roasted meat (take your pick) and topped with cucumber, tomato, tahini (roasted sesame seed paste) and amba (a pickled mango sauce). Al Madrooba is fish that has been cured with salt, baked in a spice and flour mixture and served with ghee (Indian style clarified butter). Al Khabeesah is a sweet desert made with flour, rose water, cardamom, sugar, ghee and saffron. Batheeth are sweet little treats made from a mixture of flour, dates, cardamom, sesame seeds, ginger, almonds and butter.

Drink Specialties: For countless centuries camel's milk has been drunk throughout the Mid-East, North Africa and along the ancient trade routes of central Asia - anywhere the "Ships of the Desert" were bred or used. Camel milk is high in nutritional content, far richer in iron and vitamins B and C than cow's milk. It is said to taste sharp and to be sweeter than cow's milk. A good cup of cappuccino that is made with camel's milk is called a "camelccino".

SHOPPING FACILITIES In the Port Area, there is also a duty free shop selling electronics, perfumes, cigarettes and liquor. Outside of the port, the nearest and best shopping area in Fujairah is the Lulu Super Market.

LOCAL CURRENCY The currency in the UAE is the "dirham" (AED). Major credit cards are widely accepted.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES The Fujairah post office is in the city center.

Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 0.800.121 or 0.800.161

MCI: 0.800.111

TOURIST INFORMATION Fujairah Tourism and Antiquities Authority is located in the Fujairah Trade Center.

TRANSPORTATION Fujairah is not a city designed for walking. In fact, if a visitor is seen walking around town they will probably get a quizzical look from taxi drivers. Thankfully, local taxis are plentiful.

USEFUL WORDS AND PHRASES The official language of the United Arab Emirates is Arabic. With so many guest workers in the country and so many different languages spoken, in order to preserve national identity, in 2008 the UAE government voted to make Arabic the official language.

Muscat

OMAN

GENERAL INFORMATION Oman is situated on the eastern part of the Arabian Peninsula, bordering the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia and Yemen. Surrounded by striking mountains on one side and soft sandy shores along its coasts, Muscat is an ancient town, characterized by a unique civilization reflecting both Arabian and Islamic influences.

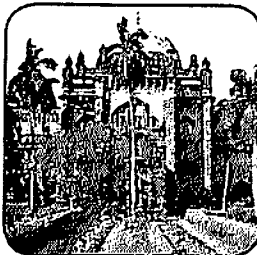

For the past two centuries the capital of Oman has been Muscat. It has been the capital since the third Al Bu Said ruler established his residence there in the 1780s. Muscat, from Arabic masquat, means "the cliffs." The city is aptly named for the sheer brown-black cliffs that form its inland boundaries. Flanking the rocky coves around which the city is built are the two Portuguese forts, Jelali and Merani, which give Muscat a medieval and romantic appearance. It is a friendly port that has retained many of the traditions and customs that have been followed for centuries on the Arabian Peninsula. The ancient buildings, narrow winding streets, Arabesque gates and beautiful engravings help the city retain much of its medieval charm while blending with the modern commercial and residential quarters, giving the city an ambiance all of its own.

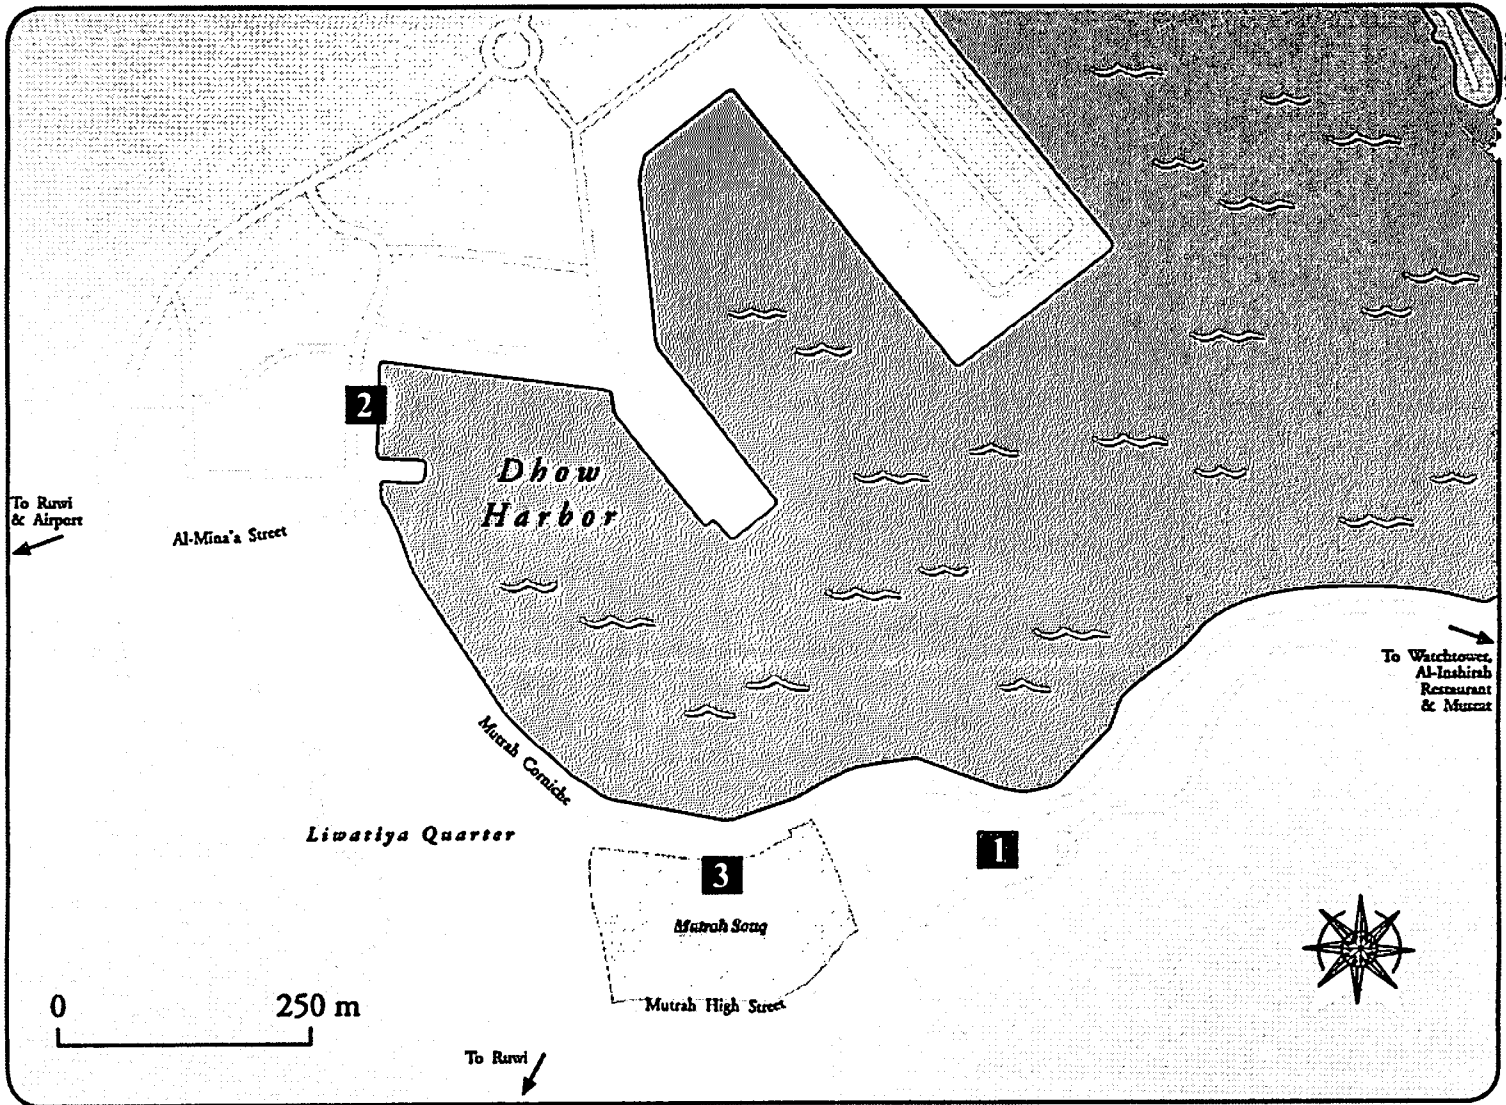

Muscat is often referred to as the "capital region" or the "three cities" – Muscat, Mutrah and Ruwi. Muscat is the heart – the old port area where Sultan Qaboos' main palace stands within the city walls against the water's edge. Mutrah is the main trading and residential port area, which lies two miles northwest of Muscat. Mutrah Souq (bazaar) is one of the best in the Arab Gulf States and offers a vast array of Arabian antiques, bright textiles, and exquisite gold and silver jewelry. Inland from Mutrah lies the town of Ruwi, which has grown from desolate land to the financial and business heart of the nation where the headquarters of major international banks serve Oman and lie adjacent to the busy shopping district.

HISTORY The Gulf States are unique, each having its own special character, history and customs. Oman is the oldest of the established independent Arabian countries with its civilization dating back far as 5,000 years. In biblical times Oman was the hub of the rich frankincense trade. Native Boswellia trees produced a sap from which the exotic incense was derived and became as valuable as gold during the time of Christ. The product was exported to places as far away as Rome before the decline of the trade brought a slow period to Oman's history.

Muscat gained importance during the 14th and 15th centuries as an outpost for the power kings of Hormuz. It was this role that attracted the Portuguese, who conquered the town during the 16th century to protect their own eastern trade routes. Two centuries later the expanding British Empire pushed the Portuguese out of their many strongholds around the Indian Ocean, establishing a treaty of friendship with Oman.

Since the mid 18th century the city has been the seat of the Al-Busaid dynasty. From the time of the accession of His Majesty, Sultan Qaboos Bin Said in 1970, the Sultanate of Oman has been transformed. Over the last 30 years Oman has pursued modernization and grown from an underdeveloped country to a 20th century state with modern facilities, highways, a university and sport complexes. A major factor is the continuing development of tourism and Oman's rapidly growing importance as a favored destination.

PLACES OF INTEREST

MUTRAH PLACES OF INTEREST

1 Oman Dive Centre, at Bandar Jussa, where there is a sheltered bay on the brink of the beach with a world class dive centre offering all levels of diving instructions.

2 Mutrah Fish Market The fish market is at the northern end of the Mutrah Corniche. In addition to fish, meat is also sold here and you will sometimes find shell merchants. The best time to come is early in the morning.

3 Mutrah Souq, is without a doubt the most interesting souq in the Arab Gulf States. There are a dozen or so shops that specialize in antique silver jewelry. Also visit the nearby Spice Souq.

Beyond Central Mutrah

Mutrah Fort This fort took on more or less its present form in the 1580s during the Portuguese occupation of Muscat. All of the forts are still used by the police and/or military and are closed to the public.

National Aquarium Muscat has by far the best aquarium in the Gulf. It is south of old Muscat between Sidab and Al-Bustan. All of the specimens on display are native to Omani waters. In addition to fish, crustaceans and coral there is a display of Omani sea shells in the lobby.

Qantab A small fishing village with a splendid view of the sea.

Souq Al Juma Popularly known as Friday market, the souq sells new and old items ranging from furniture to cars.

Al Qurm Known for its elegant shopping malls, the area also has a beautiful National Park where Omani families frequently picnic on weekends.

Omani French Museum This museum is largely an extended celebration of the sultan's state visit to France in 1989 and the French President Mitterrand's state visit to Muscat in 1992. There are also several galleries detailing relations between the two countries in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Quriyat As one of the major wilayats in this region, the town is an important commercial center and famous for the export of horses, seafood and agricultural products. Nearby is Wadi Dayqah with one of the largest streams on the Arabian Gulf.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Muscat, Mutrah and surrounding areas, we suggest you take one of the organized Shore Excursions. For further information consult your Shore Excursion brochure or contact the Shore Excursion desk. When going ashore, guests are advised to take with them only the items they need and to secure any valuables.

LOCAL CUSTOMS Bartering: Most prices are fixed in Oman. This applies to restaurants, hotels and taxis. The only things you can expect to haggle over will be souvenirs in the souq.

Tipping: Tipping is not expected in cheaper places while more expensive restaurants tend to add a service charge to all bills (though this often goes to the restaurant not the waiting staff).

Local Cuisine: There is little in the way of traditional cuisine. Muscat is full of small Indian restaurants where the food is good. Muscat also has a number of up-market Indian and Lebanese restaurants and the usual collection of western-style fast-food establishments, especially fried chicken places. The big hotels offer the usual selection of international fare.

Local drink: Small restaurants are likely to offer you a choice of little more than Coke, Pepsi or water. Larger restaurants have a wider variety of soft drinks as well as fruit juice, sometimes freshly squeezed. Alcohol is available only in larger hotels and expensive restaurants. Bottled water is recommended.

SHOPPING FACILITIES The artistic sensibility runs deep in the Omani culture, and can be seen in everything from architecture to Bedouin rug weavings to Omani jewelry. Visitors to the Sultanate can return home with tribal rugs, silver coffee pots, or khanjars, the curved ceremonial dagger worn by Omani men on official occasions. From designer clothing to traditional Omani garments, Oman offers something for every taste. The souqs have handcrafted jewelry and antiques, and a colorful array of products and foodstuffs imported from all over the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Merchants expect to haggle, and there are bargains everywhere. The Ruwi souq is a good place for shopping, but it is not exactly a tourist attraction. Like the rest of Ruwi it is a modern creation.

LOCAL CURRENCY The official currency of the Sultanate of Oman is called the Omani Rial (OMR). One Omani Rial equals 1000 Baizas. There are notes in denominations of 1, 5, 10, 20 and 50 Rials. You will also find notes for Baizas in 100, 200, 250 and 500 denominations. Coins in circulation are for denominations of 5, 10, 25, 50, 100, 250 and 500 baizas.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES The GPO is right on the dividing line between Ruwi and Bait Al-Falajat at the northern end of Markaz Mutrah Al-Tijari Street. Muscat's post office is near the Al-Kabir gate.

The telephone office is in Ruwi on Souk Ruwi Street near the intersection with Street 37. Two international call cabins are on the upper floor. You can also send faxes from a desk in the main lobby.

TRANSPORTATION Muscat's taxis, like all others in Oman, are orange and white. Greater Muscat has two main service-taxi stands for both taxis and minibuses. One is in Ruwi across Al-Jaame Street from the main bus station while the other is out at the Seeb clock tower roundabout, beyond the airport.

The ONTC's system of local busses covers greater Muscat fairly thoroughly. Destinations are displayed on the front of the busses in Arabic and English, but the bus numbers are only in Arabic numerals. The main bus station is on Al-Jaame Street in Ruwi and there is a secondary station by the roundabout near the Mina Hotel in Mutrah.

Abu Dhabi

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

GENERAL INFORMATION The city of Abu Dhabi is the capital of the United Arab Emirates (UAE). Its population is close to 1 million with a large percentage of the residents being Western businessmen and foreign guest workers.

Seven separate and independent emirates come together to create the UAE of which the emirate of Abu Dhabi ranks second in size. The city, overlooking the Persian Gulf, is home to the UAE's federal government as well as the royal family of His Highness Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan.

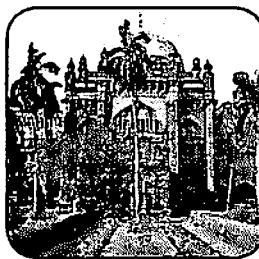

Abu Dhabi has witnessed unprecedented development in the recent years. Expanding its economic base beyond petroleum, the city has emerged as a vibrant commercial and financial center as well as a magnet for international business and a growing tourism industry. In less than a generation, with the leadership, encouragement and dynamic support of the Royal Family, the city and emirate of Abu Dhabi have helped forge a respected nation and gleaming metropolis from the heat of the desert sands.

HISTORY This is an ancient land and an ancient people, little known to Europeans up to the early 1500s AD. By 1515 the Portuguese in their efforts to bypass Arab traders and take control of the Indian Ocean and the spice trade, conquered most of the Persian Gulf region. It remained under Portuguese control for the next century and a half.

By the early 1650s the Ottoman Empire had driven the Portuguese from the Persian Gulf and the coast of what is the present day UAE became infested with pirates and smugglers. This was a poor region of pearl harvesting, small time agriculture, livestock herding and fishing. Life was difficult at best.

In 1820 Great Britain used the power of her Royal Navy to convince the various sheikhs of the region to sign a treaty that led to England's assurance of protection in return for closer diplomatic relations and the cessation of attacks on merchant shipping. In a small yet important way it was the foundation and results of this treaty that helped unite the seven emirates a century and a half later, not only as an ancient people but as a new nation.

Even up to the mid 1900s Abu Dhabi was little more than coastal village. The groundwork for a great city was laid in the late 1930s when the British were given permission to explore for oil. Following World War II the search resumed and efforts were rewarded in the late 1950s. It is Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan who is credited with two important developments. The first is Sheikh Zayed's leadership in the 1971 unification of seven independent emirates to create the United Arab Emirates. The second important development was Sheikh Zayed's vision for the future, using the tremendous wealth generated by the UAE's vast oil reserves to build, from the sand up, a modern society and vibrant "world-class" city. All this was accomplished without destroying the religious and cultural attributes that are the traditions of the people.

ABU DHABI PLACES OF INTEREST

1 The Abu Dhabi Heritage Village gives visitors the opportunity to see and learn about the ancient culture and traditions of this region of the Arabian Peninsula...the way life was for countless centuries before the discovery of oil and the transformation that came about as a result. There are nomadic Bedouins who mastered hunting with falcons. They were skilled horsemen and depended on their herds of camels, goats and sheep. Visitors can learn the methods and tools used by farmers who planted and harvested in the oasis, the coastal fishermen who drew their bounty from the sea and pearl divers who searched for the natural treasures found in the waters of the Persian Gulf. The village has historic examples of clothing as well as religious and cultural artifacts which are all brought together to show the long and rich heritage of this land.

2 The Marina Mall is a favorite place for locals and visitors to escape the mid-day heat of the desert sun. This is a shopping mall in the modern sense (not to be confused with a historic bazaar) where international stores from around the world are represented. There are numerous cafes and restaurants that cater to Middle-Eastern, Western and international cuisine.

3 The Corniche is Abu Dhabi's primary waterfront thoroughfare. The pedestrian walk stretches for over three miles. The fountains, parks and view make this a favorite place to stroll in the early morning and cool off in the evening.

4 The Al Bateen Shipyard is one of the historic areas of the modern waterfront where visitors can see the classic teak-wood fishing dhows coming and going from the Persian Gulf. Extensive expansion and modernization is underway.

5 The Emirates Palace is a stunningly beautiful hotel and popular attraction in the city. Built at a cost of over 3 billion USD this is one of the most luxurious sites in all the Middle East. It is intricately designed with rich marble and gold. The restaurants and cafes offer visitors the opportunity to dine or relax with a cool drink in an environment fit for a king.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Abu Dhabi and surrounding areas, we suggest you take one of our organized Shore Excursions. For information concerning your options, content and pricing, consult your Shore Excursion Brochure or contact the Shore Excursion Desk. When going ashore, be advised to take only items that are necessary and secure any valuables onboard.

LOCAL CUSTOMS One of the most rewarding things about having the opportunity to visit another country is learning about other social customs and traditions. As in most countries, the Emirates has a well defined and long standing set of practices which help to characterize its citizens as a people and a nation. First-time visitors can not be expected to be experts in the intricacies of social interaction as practiced throughout the UAE. However, visitors learning about and making an effort to respect the rules of etiquette is always appreciated by the people of any host country. We have included a few examples of common etiquette as practiced in the United Arab Emirates and throughout much of the Muslim world:

It is common for Arab men to shake hands when meeting, greeting or leaving. Often, Arab gentlemen will hold the handshake longer than is common in the West. This is a sign of respect and friendship. Foreign gentlemen, if being introduced to a lady for the first time, should refrain from offering to shake her hand. Simply follow the lady's example. If she offers her hand, accept it politely.

In the Muslim tradition when having a meal or simply a cup of coffee or tea at a café it is proper to use the right hand. In the Arab world the left hand is considered unclean. This rule of etiquette should also be followed when accepting from or offering something to someone.

When in an Arab home or mosque shoes are always removed. The bottoms of an individual's shoes and the bottoms of their feet are considered unclean. They should not be exposed as this is considered insulting.

Men in the Gulf States wear a loose fitting ankle length tunic called a "kandura". It is most often light weight, white and made of cotton. On special occasions when more formal attire is called for, an outer robe called a "bisht" is worn over the kandura. The headdress, usually pure white or in a red and white checkered pattern is called a "guthra". Foreign men visiting the region are not expected to dress in traditional Arab fashion however shorts and sleeveless shirts are not socially acceptable.

Many of the women in the Gulf States, as well as other parts of the Muslim world, wear a black, full length, long sleeve, light weight garment known as an "abaya". Depending on the prevailing custom in each nation the abaya can be embroidered with beautiful design or remain without decoration. The ladies wear a headdress known as a "shayla". Foreign women visiting the Emirates are not expected to wear the abaya but are strongly encouraged to refrain from wearing clothes that reveal shoulders, arms or legs.

Bargaining: It is all about value and desire. What is the item worth to you and how much is the merchant first asking for it? Merchants in the Mid-East have thousands of years of experience in trade and bargaining. In many of the countries of the Mid-East the ancient art of bargaining is not as much business as it is a type of social interaction, more of a dance than a duel. Keep a few simple things in mind. Tipping: Though many restaurants will have added a service charge to the bill this does not necessarily reach the waiter. A 10-15% cash tip directly to the waiter is always appreciated. Taxis are not usually given a tip.

Local Cuisine: A variety of food, spices and recipes in the Emirates have been incorporated from all around the Mid-East and India. Seafood, goat, lamb and rice are traditional favorites. Harees is a mixture of lamb, wheat, rice, onions and garlic that has been well cooked and blended into a smooth paste. This is a popular dish during the Muslim holidays. Al Khanfarooch is made from flour and eggs to which saffron, cardamom and sugar are added then formed into patties and fried in butter. Lukaimat are small desert treats made from a mixture of flour, yogurt, cornmeal and milk then rolled into balls, fried and covered with sugar syrup. La-ham mashwee is stuffed lamb. The recipe calls for the stuffing to be made with a mixture of almonds, cashews, onions, split peas, cinnamon, cloves, turmeric, tomatoes and seaman (an Indian spice). The lamb is slow roasted and served with side dishes of (for example) yoghurt, dates and radishes. This is often prepared as a special meal for honored guests.

Drink Specialties: For countless centuries camel's milk has been drunk throughout the Mid-East, North Africa and along the ancient trade routes of Central Asia - anywhere the "Ships of the Desert" were bred or used. Camel milk is high in nutritional content, far richer in iron and vitamins B and C than cow's milk. It is said to taste sharp and to be sweeter than cow's milk. A good cup of cappuccino that is made with camel's milk is called a "camelccino".

SHOPPING FACILITIES "Souk" is the Arabic word for "market". Though Abu Dhabi has experienced rapid growth over the past few years and offers shoppers numerous high-end malls, there remain a few traditional souks that provide visitors with the opportunity to search out items not readily available in the more modern venues.

The Al Meena Carpet Market is reputed to be one of the most popular places for those seeking authentic Middle Eastern rugs. The Al Ain Souk and the Iranian Souk have a wide variety of antiques, gold jewelry, handicrafts, carpets and artwork.

The Abu Dhabi Mall and the Marina Mall are the city's two largest modern shopping venues.

LOCAL CURRENCY The currency in the UAE is the "dirham" (AED). Major credit cards are widely accepted.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES There is a Post Office located in the Abu Dhabi Marina Mall.

Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 0.800.121 or 0.800.161

TOURIST INFORMATION There is a Tourist Information Center also located in the Abu Dhabi Marina Mall.

TRANSPORTATION Taxis are plentiful, licensed and metered.

USEFUL WORDS AND PHRASES The official language of the United Arab Emirates is Arabic. With so many guest workers in the country and so many different languages spoken, in order to preserve national identity, in 2008 the UAE government voted to make Arabic the official language.

Dubai

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

GENERAL INFORMATION Like an oasis in the desert, Dubai is a surreal land of contrasts. Old Arab traditions blend with modern realities of comforts, luxuries and values. Islamic culture and heritage, traditions and customs both old and new make up the charm of the most populous city in the United Arab Emirates. Dubai defies its surroundings with seemingly endless skyscrapers, five and even seven-star hotels, artificial islands, and an indoor ski slope that dot the desert emirate. Perhaps only the permanent feature of Dubai is change: every year the landscape changes with thousands of newly constructed buildings and infrastructure. Even the land itself changes: two inaugural land reclamation projects, The Palm Islands and The World, have emerged from the sea as some of the most sought after real estate in Dubai. Also known as the Venice of the (Persian) Gulf, Dubai is the most independent of the emirates, defying the influence of federal institutions to regulate its trade. Its residents were fed by the idea that human beings, whatever their religion, will put aside their differences in pursuit of profit.

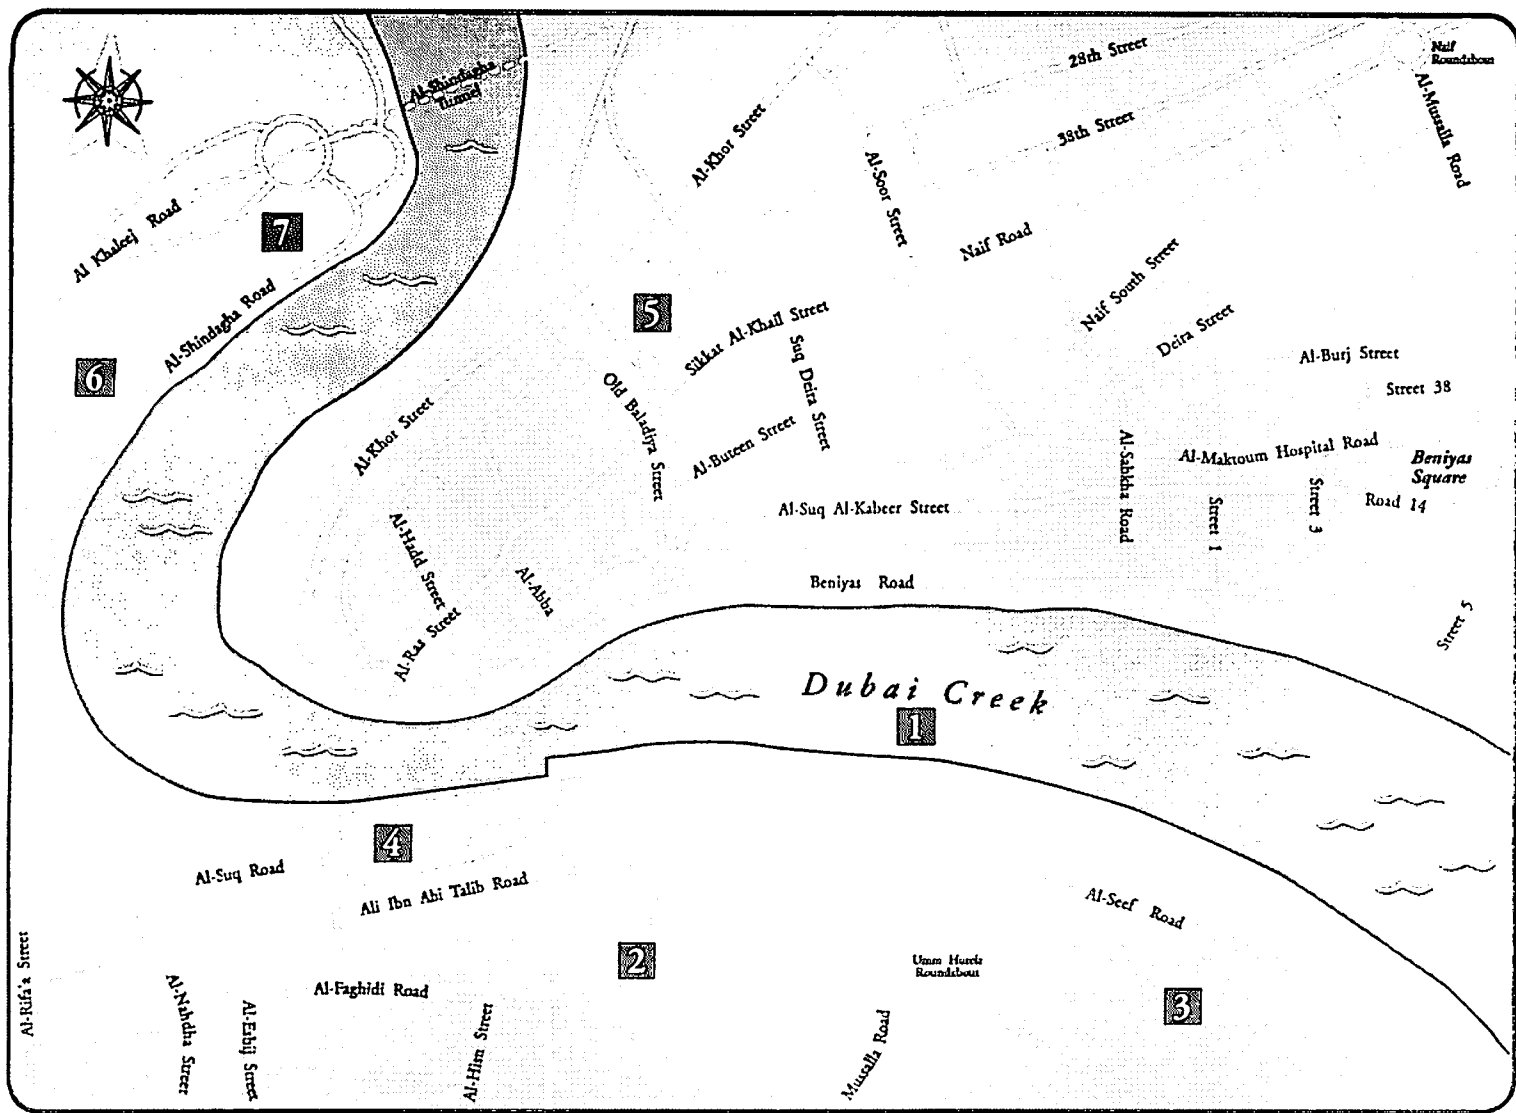

Dubai was originally two towns: Deira to the east and Bur Dubai to the west. If Deira is characterized as the city's commercial heart, then Bur Dubai is the city's historical soul. The two towns are separated by Dubai Creek. It was here, on the Creek's banks that the city grew from a tiny Persian Gulf trading hub into a megalopolis. Arab wooden boats called dhows carry goods to trade down the river, alongside the major developments along the creek's banks that hurl the city into the twenty-first century. Beginning in the 1960s, an influx of trade, investment, and publicity flooded the city to make it one of the most spectacular emirates of the UAE. Today the emirate needs little introduction, as Dubai has become synonymous with over-the-top architecture, international trade, and fantastic beaches. In addition to its jaw-dropping landscape, Dubai plays host to dozens of international festivals and sports competitions each year. Today Dubai is home to a list of superlatives that constantly grows longer: the tallest buildings, the largest malls, most luxurious hotels, and most expensive real estate. These days it seems that Dubai's only competition for growth is itself.

HISTORY Dubai's past – and that of the entire United Arab Emirates – is also a tale in the history of trade, tribes, and Islam in the Middle East. Arab tribes entered the region around 500 B.C., but there were no permanent settlements until irrigation techniques and the domestication of the camel enabled tribes to stay in the area. The pearl and agricultural industries prompted further urbanization, making Dubai and surrounding coastal towns into maritime powerhouses. In 630 A.D., messengers from the Prophet Muhammad arrived, ushering in the widespread conversion to Islam. For the following three centuries, the UAE was the staging ground for political and religious conquests, paving routes for trade and contact in the Gulf. Until the 1830s, Dubai was part of a conglomerate of Arab commercial towns that interacted with local merchants and European traders, especially the Portuguese, Dutch, and British. European powers tried to control Dubai's strategic coast, resulting in the British finally gaining control in 1766.

In the 1830s, Sheikh Maktoum Bin Asher moved into Bur Dubai and established the Al-Maktoum dynasty that continues to rule today. In 1892, Sheikh Maktoum signed a landmark trade agreement with the British. Two years later, he established a tax exemption for foreign merchants, and in 1903, Dubai became the main port of call for British steamships in the Gulf. Its status as a duty-free port saved the city when its natural pearling industry crashed in the 1930s with the invention of artificial pearls. Sheikh Rashid Bin Saeed Bin Al-Maktoum developed the facilities along Dubai Creek to strengthen the duty-free port's "re-export trade" of cheaply imported goods...as well as its black market for gold smuggling.

The 1966 the discovery of oil lit a fire to the already hot economy. In 1968, the British withdrew forces from the Gulf, allowing the local rulers to establish their own government. In 1971, leaders formed the United Arab Emirates, and Dubai became the free trade center of the union in the subsequent years. Sheikh Rashid oversaw the transformation of Dubai's economy and infrastructure until his death in 1990. His son, Sheikh Maktoum, continued his father's legacy until his own death in 2006, leaving Dubai as the fastest growing city in the world. Today Dubai plays host to countless festivals and sports competitions, including the renowned Dubai Desert Classic golf tournament. The city knows no limits on its potential growth, and it shows no signs of stopping in the twenty-first century.

DUBAI PLACES OF INTEREST

1 Step back in time along the Dubai Creek Waterfront, which separates Deira from Bur Dubai. The creek literally links Dubai's present to its history, as the water guides traditional wooden boats, known as dhows, to the city center.

2 Learn about the emirate's history at the Dubai Museum, which occupies the former Al-Fahaidi Fort on the Dubai side of the Creek. The museum exhibits a chronological history of Dubai from the 19th century onwards including a re-creation of the Dubai souq as it looked in the 1950s. There are also exhibits on the flora and fauna of Dubai, Bedouin life, seafaring life and the area's archaeology.

3 Bastakia is a heritage neighborhood in Bur Dubai that was originally built by Persian merchants who settled in the area in the late 1800s. Limestone homes and restored wind towers line the narrow pedestrian streets that were largely neglected until the area was restored.

4 First built in 1900, the Dubai Grand Mosque has been rebuilt several times, yet has always been a center of worship and cultural life in the city. Most recently reconstructed in 1998, the mosque has the tallest minaret in Dubai. Non-Muslims are not allowed to enter the mosque, but they can visit the minaret and outside areas.

5 Gold Souq, is probably the largest such market in Arabia and should be at the top of any "must see" list for Dubai.

6 In 1896, a coral-block home with four wind towers was constructed for the ruling family, Sheikh Saeed Al Maktoum. Today Sheikh Saeed's House has been restored as a museum of pre-oil times. It sits beside the Creek on the Dubai side, near Port Rashid.

7 Learn about Dubai's maritime history at the Heritage and Diving Village in Al Shindagha. The Heritage area features traditional craft demonstrations, while the Diving Village displays the pearl diving history of Dubai.

Beyond the Dubai Creek Area

The 39 floor World Trade Center once was the tallest building in Dubai. There is a viewing gallery on the 37th floor for those who want a bird's-eye view of the city.

Out of the waters near Dubai has emerged Jumeirah Palm Island, the first of three planned reclaimed landmasses. The project will add over 500 kilometers to Dubai's coastline and is the most ambitious land reclamation project in the world.

As if skyscrapers and artificial islands were not enough ... it even snows in the desert at Ski Dubai, an indoor ski center in the Mall of the Emirates. The facility has a restaurant overlooking the slope where you can marvel at the improbable wonderland.

In 1998, UNESCO named the neighboring emirate of Sharjah the capital of the Arab world for its preservation of its traditional architecture and culture with historical museums, mosques, and heritage areas.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Dubai and surrounding areas, we suggest you take one of the organized Shore Excursions. For further information consult your Shore Excursion brochure or contact the Shore Excursion desk. When going ashore, guests are advised to take with them only the items they need and to secure any valuables.

LOCAL CUSTOMS Bargaining: Haggle hard anywhere in the souq but don't expect the prices of things like gold or electronic goods to come down by more than 10 - 15%. Antiques and crafts may come down a bit more.

Tipping: Tips are not generally expected in the UAE, though since most waiters receive extremely low salaries they would certainly be appreciated. The service charge added to your bill usually goes to the restaurant, not the waiter.

Local Cuisine: Arabic food reigns supreme in Dubai. Indian, Pakistani, and Lebanese restaurants abound, as well as every international cuisine imaginable at Dubai's vast array of hotel restaurants. Be prepared to eat "mezze" style, in which a variety of appetizers arrives at your table at the same time, rather than a series of full-course dishes. Shawarma is an Arabic sandwich made with pita bread, lamb or chicken, and topped with tomatoes, cucumber, lettuce, and hummus. Falafels are a delicious fried mix of ground chickpeas and spices, which can look like a croquette or cutlet. Try it as an appetizer, in a sandwich, or as a side dish.

Local drink: Non-alcoholic drinks such as soft drinks, fruit juices and mineral water are available throughout the country. Alcohol can only be sold in restaurants and bars attached to hotels. The selection is what you would expect to find in any well-stocked bar. Bottled water is recommended.

SHOPPING FACILITIES When a city has an annual Shopping Festival, you know the opportunities will be endless... Dubai City Center is a popular destination with hundreds of shops. The Mall of the Emirates was the largest mall in the world until the Dubai Mall opened in November 2008 in Downtown Bur Dubai. With over 1200 stores, an Olympic-size ice rink, and a Fashion Catwalk, it will be difficult to not find something to purchase at these malls.

For a taste of traditional market culture in Dubai, visit one of the many souks. Dubai has souks specializing in gold, spices, perfumes, and textiles. Besides the title goods at the souks, popular souvenirs in Dubai include Persian rugs, pearls, and jewelry. Be prepared to haggle.

LOCAL CURRENCY The UAE Dirham (Dh) is divided into 100 fils. You will also hear the currency occasionally referred to as rupees. Notes come in denominations of Dh 5, 10, 50, 100, 200, and 500. Coins are Dh 1, 50 fils, 25 fils, 10 fils and 5 fils. Foreign exchange rates fluctuate. There is also a slight variation for cash or traveler's checks.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES There is a Post Office available at the cruise terminal.

Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 0.800.121 or 0.800.161

MCI: 0.800.111

TRANSPORTATION The most popular way to get around Dubai is by taxi. There are metered taxi services on either side of Dubai Creek. The emirate's bus system is also reliable and extensive. Local buses operate out of the main stations in both Deira and Bur Dubai. Numbers and routes are posted on the buses in English as well as Arabic.

To go from Deira to Bur Dubai across Dubai Creek, take an abra or small water taxi. You can also hire a private abra with an operator for a larger fee.

TOURIST INFORMATION A Tourist Information Desk is available at the cruise terminal.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Alcohol Policy – The minimum drinking age for all alcoholic beverages on all Royal Caribbean International ships is 21 years. However, on ships in Europe and South America, where the legal drinking age is lower than 21 years, a parent who is sailing with his or her son(s) and/or daughter(s) and is between the ages of 18 to 20 years, may sign a waiver allowing them to consume alcoholic beverages.

Liquor Purchases – Royal Caribbean International apologizes for any inconvenience, but we kindly ask our guests not to bring alcoholic beverages of any kind onboard for consumption. Alcoholic beverages purchased in our Shops Onboard and our ports-of-call will be stored by Royal Caribbean International and delivered to your stateroom on the last day of your vacation.

Broadcast Television – Royal Caribbean International is proud to offer licensed satellite TV & sports programming available in international waters including: CNN International, ESPN International, Eurosport, Cartoon Network, and BBC World. (Domestic broadcast feeds can only be legally broadcast in port or within 12 miles of the coastline.) Brief moments of satellite signal loss can be expected at anytime – an inevitable consequence on a moving ship. In addition, some major sporting events may not be available to cruise ships due to blackouts and legal broadcast rights restrictions from the European sports leagues. We hope you enjoy the widest variety of stateroom television entertainment available at sea!

Vacuum System – The toilets work on a vacuum system and require that the button be pushed firmly and completely in. If the button is only partially pressed, the basin will only add more water and not flush properly. Please do not put any foreign objects into your toilet, as this will only clog it. Excessive amounts of toilet paper will also cause clogging. Should you have any maintenance issues, please contact us using the "Maintenance" button on your stateroom phone or by dialing 1800.

Brilliance Day Spa – Cancellations must be made 24 hours before your appointment to avoid a 50% charge.

Candles – The use of open flames, such as candles, is not permitted in guest staterooms or suites.

Call Home Today – For only $7.95 per minute, you can call via satellite directly from your stateroom. To the United States, Canada and the Caribbean, dial Ship to Shore line key on the telephone, then dial 1 + area code + number. To another country, dial the Ship to Shore line key on the telephone, then dial 011 + country code + number. All charges are billed to your Seapass account. Charges begin as soon as the call is answered, including all toll free numbers.

Food and Drink Advisory – When eating in a foreign port-of-call, drink only bottled water and don't include any ice in your beverages. Make sure all your meat, poultry and seafood are fully cooked. Avoid raw fruits and vegetables. Be advised that no food is allowed to be brought onboard.

Helpful Health Information - Norovirus: Royal Caribbean International, working in conjunction with the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention, has instituted enhanced cleaning procedures onboard all its ships. You will likely see some of these activities during your cruise vacation. Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, and gastrointestinal illnesses is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Your cooperation and assistance with this matter is appreciated.

Health Advisory – United States Public Health & Centers for Disease Control regulation information - Animal products such as meat, eggs, dairy produce, poultry or seafood that is raw or undercooked significantly increases risk to vulnerable and immunodeficient guests.

Language Assistance – For non-English speaking guests, our International Ambassador is available in the Explorer's Court on Deck 8 during desk hours.

Medical Care – We have a team of two doctors and three nurses to assist you with any medical concerns. Medical facility charges are based on United States Government Medicare Physician Fee Schedule rates. Outside regular hours, charges are modified to compensate for in-stateroom visits or medical attention rendered at any location after hours.

Guest Conduct Policy – For the safety, comfort and enjoyment of all Royal Caribbean International guests, we have developed certain Guest Conduct Guidelines for both adults and children. These guidelines cover a variety of areas, including but not limited to: • Smoking • Verbal abuse • Violent and/or unruly behavior • Excessive, offensive language • Possession of an illegal substance • Vandalism.

Smoking Policy – For the comfort and enjoyment of our guests, the Brilliance of the Seas has been primarily designated as a non-smoking ship. However, we recognize that some of our guests smoke. Therefore, to provide an onboard environment that also satisfies smokers, we have designated smoking areas in many of our lounges and on some open decks, starboard side of the ship. Royal Caribbean International kindly asks all guests to please observe the non-smoking areas and to refrain from smoking pipes or cigars in any of the public areas. These requests are made to provide a comfortable shipboard environment for everyone. Guests are welcome to enjoy pipes and cigars in the Hollywood Odyssey, Deck 13, from 10:00 pm - 1:00 am every evening. Please extinguish cigarettes only in proper ashtrays and not overboard or in waste receptacles.

Solarium Pool Policy – As per our Guest Conduct Policy, the Solarium pool is reserved for guests 16 years and older. We thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Wake-Up Calls – Speed dial and enter your preferred wake-up time in 4 digits, then press 1 for am or 2 for pm.

NOTICES

Helpful Health Information - Norovirus

- With seasonal viruses appearing in the United States, Europe and around the world, Royal Caribbean International, working in conjunction with the Centers for Disease Control, has instituted enhanced cleaning procedures onboard all its ships. You will likely see some of these activities during your cruise vacation. Medical experts strongly suggest that travelers pay close attention to washing their hands. The experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu and gastrointestinal illnesses is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after bathroom breaks and again before eating anything. Your cooperation and assistance is greatly appreciated.

Curfew for Guests Under the Age of 18 - Important Notice To Our Young Cruisers
 Those guests 17 years of age and under who are not accompanied by an adult must be clear of all public areas by 1:00 am each evening unless involved in an Adventure Ocean® activity / Teen activity. For further guidance please refer to the Guest Conduct Policy which can be found in the Cruise Services Directory in your stateroom.

DAY 2 Tuesday, February 8, 2011

In Fujairah's Valleys And Reefs, Adventure Finds You.

The dramatic mountainous landscape of Fujairah strikes a bold contrast with the other Emirates, which are primarily blanketed by desert. Fujairah is also the only Emirate on the east coast, though its beaches and coral reefs are just as spectacular as those found on the Persian Gulf. With such unique geographical features and miles of unspoiled natural beauty, it's no wonder why so many visitors are drawn to Fujairah. Just outside of the city, the region holds more than thirty large valleys just itching to be explored. However, most travelers agree that the Al Wurayah Valley is by far the most stunning. Its dramatic scenery, highlighted by the lovely Al Wurayah waterfalls, is an absolute must-see. Go on an exhilarating off-road desert journey through ancient rock formations and rolling red sand dunes. Aquatic adventures are just as popular here. Aside from the amazing snorkeling, scuba diving and fishing, Fujairah's crystal waters are host to the annual Power Boat racing world championship."

3. TAG Mittwoch, 2. Februar, 2011

Maskat, Das Bestgehütete Geheimnis Des Nahen Ostens.

Das blaue Minarett und die Kuppel der berühmtesten Moschee von Maskat dominieren zwar die Silhouette der Stadt, sind aber bei Weitem nicht ihre einzigen architektonischen Wunder. Die Corniche wird von goldenen Kuppelbauten gesäumt und der prächtige Al-Alam-Palast ist ein Muss für jeden Besucher. Es ist schwer zu glauben, dass die Hauptstadt des Oman, eine der ältesten Städte des Nahen Ostens, erst vor Kurzem touristisch erschlossen wurde. Mittlerweile ist sie in rapidem Wachstum begriffen, wobei aber großer Wert auf den Erhalt ihres reichen Kulturerbes und der intimen Atmosphäre gelegt wird. Von den sorgsam gepflegten Parks und makellosen Stränden bis hin zu dem steinernen Festungsgraben ist Maskat eine Stadt wie aus dem Bilderbuch.

Den besten Ausblick hat man von den hoch gelegenen Festungen Al-Jalali und Al-Mirani. Einst von den Portugiesen als Gefängnis genutzt, beherbergen Sie heute ein Museum. Der Muttrah Souk, Muskats ältester Markt, ist ein Labyrinth von Händlerständen, an denen Sie einzigartige Waren erstehen können. Maskat ist außerdem ein kaum erschlossenes Taucherparadies: Unweit der Küste befinden sich einige atemberaubende Korallenriffe. Falls Sie lieber oberhalb des Meeresspiegels bleiben, können Sie die Küstenlandschaft auch an Bord einer traditionellen Dhau bewundern.

DAY 3 Wednesday, February 9, 2011

Muscat, The Best-Kept Secret In The Middle East.

The blue minaret and dome of Muscat's most famous mosque may dominate the skyline, but there are several architectural marvels in town. The Corniche is lined with gold-topped cupolas, and Al Alam Palace is a modern must-see wonder. As one of the oldest cities in the Middle East, it's hard to believe that this capital city of Oman was only recently opened for tourism. But no matter how fast Muscat grows, the city is set on preserving its rich history and intimate feel. From the manicured parks and unspoiled beaches to the stone moat that still surrounds the area, Muscat is a vision in and of itself.

The best views in town are from the mountainside forts of Al Jalali and Al Mirani. Once used as a prison during Portuguese occupation, the forts have since been converted into a museum. The Muttrah Souk, Muscat's oldest market, is a labyrinth of merchant stalls offering wonderfully unique items. Muscat is also a virtually untapped divers' paradise, with stunning coral reefs not far from the shore. Or you can always admire the coastal scenery onboard a traditional wooden dhow.

DAY 4 Thursday, February 10, 2011

Muscat, The Best-Kept Secret In The Middle East.

The blue minaret and dome of Muscat's most famous mosque may dominate the skyline, but there are several architectural marvels in town. The Corniche is lined with gold-topped cupolas, and Al Alam Palace is a modern must-see wonder. As one of the oldest cities in the Middle East, it's hard to believe that this capital city of Oman was only recently opened for tourism. But no matter how fast Muscat grows, the city is set on preserving its rich history and intimate feel. From the manicured parks and unspoiled beaches to the stone moat that still surrounds the area, Muscat is a vision in and of itself.

The best views in town are from the mountainside forts of Al Jalali and Al Mirani. Once used as a prison during Portuguese occupation, the forts have since been converted into a museum. The Muttrah Souk, Muscat's oldest market, is a labyrinth of merchant stalls offering wonderfully unique items. Muscat is also a virtually untapped divers' paradise, with stunning coral reefs not far from the shore. Or you can always admire the coastal scenery onboard a tradition wooden dhow.

DAY 6 Saturday, February 12, 2011

Experience The Traditional And Modern Side Of Abu Dhabi.

It's hard to imagine that just fifty years ago, Abu Dhabi was a small fishing and pearling village. For centuries, the T-shaped island in the Persian Gulf led a relatively quiet existence. With the discovery of oil, the capital of the UAE was quickly transformed into a thriving modern metropolis, luring investors and tourists alike. Yet despite its newfound wealth and rapid development, the city has never forgotten its cultural roots. Amid futuristic skyscrapers and ultra-luxury hotels, Abu Dhabi's many museums and mosques pay homage to the region's rich heritage and long history. For a glimpse into the not-so-distant past, visit the Heritage Center where you'll see a reconstruction of mud-brick houses, bazaars and the traditional desert encampments of the nomadic Bedouins. The Qasr al-Hosn, a watchtower that became the Royal Palace is another interesting historical landmark worth visiting. Extreme adventurers will enjoy the thrill of the off-road driving experience, known as wadi bashing; or skiing the massive sand dunes of the Liwa Oasis. And the famous Al Meena Souk is a must for scoring unique items like an authentic antique carpet.

Erleben Sie Das Traditionelle Und Moderne Gesicht Abu Dhabis

Seit Jahrhunderten führt die T-förmige Insel im Persischen Golf ein relativ ruhiges Dasein. Mit der Entdeckung von Öl wurde aus der Hauptstadt der Emirate jedoch schnell eine florierende, moderne Metropole mit großer Anziehungskraft auf Investoren und Touristen gleichermaßen. Trotz des neu entstandenen Reichtums und der rasend schnellen Entwicklung hat die Stadt jedoch nie ihre kulturellen Wurzeln vergessen. Inmitten futuristischer Wolkenkratzer und Luxushotels der Extraklasse würdigt Abu Dhabi mit seinen vielen Museen und Moscheen auch die traditionsreiche Kultur und lange Geschichte der Region. Lernen Sie im Heritage Center die jüngere Geschichte der Region kennen: Hier sehen Sie eine Rekonstruktion alter Lehmziegelhäuser, Basare und der traditionellen Wüstenlager der Beduinen. Qasr al-Hosn, ein Wachturm, aus dem später der königliche Palast wurde, ist ein weiteres interessantes historisches Wahrzeichen, das besichtigt werden sollte. Abenteuer, die den Nervenkitzel lieben, sind bei den als „wadi bashing“ bekannten Off-Road-Touren oder auch beim „Skifahren“ in den gewaltigen Sanddünen der Liwa-Oase richtig aufgehoben. Und der berühmte Al Meena Souk ist ein Muss für alle, die einzigartige Objekte wie einen echten Antikteppich ergattern möchten. carpet.

Dubai Is Full Of Contrast, A Lavish Locale Of Old And New.

A hundred years ago—before the oil, the immigrants, the real estate boom and all the wealth that came with it—Dubai was just a pearling village. Even back then, its proximity to India had always attracted foreign merchants. And though much has changed, that sure hasn't. As one of the world's fastest growing cities, Dubai has emerged as a leading international center for free trade. Not to mention a premier luxury travel destination. Its incredible shopping, unique attractions and sheer lavishness have made Dubai a bona fide hot spot where anything is possible... and everything is for sale.

Dubai is a unique blend of the East and the West. On one end of the spectrum, you have the "seven-star" luxury hotels of Jumeirah, elaborate malls and state-of-the-art sporting venues. On the other end lies the more traditional side of Dubai—the ancient Bastakia area and the souk markets selling spices and Persian rugs. And in the desert, a whole other realm of adventure awaits. Besides, where else can you ski both in a shopping mall and out in the desert? Only in Dubai.

1. Who In The World Gameshow

Can you recall the famous names from the clues? Your Cruise Director's Staff will try to outwit you.
9:15 pm, Colony Club, Deck 6.

2. Farewell Dance Party

The DJ is spinning the discs, and this is your final chance to get out on the dancefloor and say farewell to everyone you've met onboard.
10:00 pm - late, Starquest, Deck 13

3. Big Band

Join Musical Director Adam Brown and the Brilliance of the Seas Orchestra and dance to the sounds of the big band era! Benny Goodman & Glenn Miller come to mind! Gentlemen you have no excuse not to "cut a rug" with your better half!
10:30 pm - 11:30 pm, Colony Club, Deck 6.

Go Out With A Bang

- Climb to the top. If you haven't already, challenge yourself at the Rock Climbing Wall. Or try it again, and go a little higher.
- Get on the dance floor. Learn a new step. Show off your moves. Grab a partner. Or do a little freestyle.
- Savor every last bite. If you haven't already tried out one of the specialty restaurants, you might want to treat yourself to one last delicious supper.
- Indulge yourself. With whatever it is that you love to do. Maybe it's a new hobby you picked up on the ship, or an old interest you never have time for back home. The day is yours to do whatever you please. Enjoy.

GET ENTERTAINED

Look inside for today's show schedule.

FAREWELL MESSAGE

As our cruise vacation draws to a close, we wish to express—on behalf of the Master, Hotel Director, Officers, Staff and Crew—our best wishes for a safe return home. We trust you will have pleasant memories when reflecting on your sailing experiences and sincerely hope to see you on one of our Royal Caribbean International ships in the near future. We have been friends and shipmates for 850 nautical miles. Godspeed.

WHY NOT take a 2-hour lunch? Or a 2-hour massage?

Better yet, lose track of time altogether and just relax.

4 STEPS AS YOU DEPART . . .

STEP 1 The Night Before

- Please remove all old tags from your luggage except for any personal identification.
- Attach one of the numbered tags, delivered by your Stateroom Attendant, to each piece of luggage.
- Place each piece of luggage outside your stateroom between 7:00 pm and midnight. Please make sure that you do not pack your flight tickets, passport/proof of citizenship, medication and that you remember to keep some clothes for departure morning. It is imperative that your luggage be placed outside your stateroom no later than midnight, to ensure that your luggage is received in a timely manner in the terminal.
- Please hand carry all fragile items such as liquor, laptop, glass souvenirs, etc.
- Under no circumstances should you accept a parcel or piece of luggage that does not belong to you.
- Please take a moment to view the departure video on channel 25 for an overview of the departure process.

STEP 2 Morning of Departure

SeaPass accounts are automatically billed if you have registered a credit card. A statement of your account will be delivered to your stateroom departure morning. For your convenience, accounts established with a credit card will remain active on departure morning for any last-minute purchases. If you have any questions regarding your account, please contact Guest Services before 9:00 am on departure morning. Remember you can review your folio at any time prior to this by using the RCTV system available through the television in your stateroom. Stateroom mini-bar will be checked on departure morning and any consumed items will be billed in addition to your stateroom statement.

- Guests settling SeaPass accounts with cash may settle the account up until 11:00 pm on the last night. If you would like to continue using your SeaPass card throughout the night, cash deposit is needed for the SeaPass account to remain active.
- Please be reminded that your SeaPass card is required at the Gangway as you depart the ship.
- Announcements regarding departure formalities will only be heard in the assigned waiting areas.
- When you hear the announcement in your designated lounge concerning your numbered luggage tag, you'll be escorted by a Staff member to the gangway. Your luggage will not be available in the pier terminal until your luggage tag has been called.

STEP 3 Baggage Claim

Once inside the terminal, proceed to the baggage claim area designated for your luggage tag number. Royal Caribbean International staff will be available for assistance and questions. Remember luggage tends to look alike, please be sure to check the personal name tags on your bags prior to claiming.

STEP 4 Transportation/Onshore Connections

- Air/Sea Guests or Guests with Purchased Transfers to the Airport - collect your bags from the baggage claim area, then proceed to the buses that will be waiting outside to take you and your luggage to the airport.
- Post Hotel Package Guests or Guests on Explorations! - collect your bags from the baggage claim area, then place your bags on the same bus you are traveling on.
- Cruise Only Guests - collect your bags from the baggage claim area, then proceed outside where there will be taxis available for you.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Please make sure you are in your designated waiting areas, prior to your schedule departure time. Once your luggage tag has been called, you'll be escorted by a staff member to the gangway. Your luggage will not be available in the pier terminal until your luggage tag has been called. Please note, leaving the ship prior to your baggage tag number being announced may lead to an increased waiting time on the pier terminal.
- By carrying off large pieces of luggage, you slow down the departure process, therefore you are requested to carry off hand size luggage only.

On behalf of Royal Caribbean International, we would like to thank you for cruising onboard the Brilliance of the Seas. We look forward to welcoming you aboard another Royal Caribbean International ship in the near future. Have a safe journey home!
