

SVERRE RYAN, CAPTAIN

Captain Ryan grew up amidst the beautiful mountain fjords and coastal waters of Norway where his fondness for the sea began early. Following Navigation School, his seamanship skills were put to the test while sailing worldwide on oil tankers and bulk carriers. His first training position as an Engine Oiler allowed him to build his experience from the ground level up and served as a foundation for the promotions that followed. After serving his country as a member of the Royal Norwegian Navy in the late 1970s, he was intrigued by the unique and fast-paced cruise ship industry and subsequently spent many years sailing the warm waters of the Caribbean. His experience on all types of vessels continued to expand when he later accepted the challenge of "flying" hovercrafts up river in northern British Columbia and Alaska. However, the allure of the cruise industry enticed him back where he has since continued to sail around the world as a fully licensed Master Mariner. Captain Ryan has been known to tell many fascinating stories from his adventurous travels! He and his wife now make their home in Canada. Captain Ryan warmly welcomes each of you onboard the Legend of the Seas.

Solicitation is not permitted onboard as it is considered a disturbance to other guests. Guests found soliciting will be asked to cease the behavior and all collateral (if any) will be confiscated and discarded. Continued non-compliance will result in departure of the guest from the ship at the next port-of-call.

Your cooperation and assistance with this matter is greatly appreciated.

NHA TRANG, VIETNAM	Arrival: 9:00 am	Last Tender: 3:30 pm	June 6 th 2011
NH01 - Nha Trang City Tour 	4 hrs	9:30 am	$49 adult _____	$30 child _____
Depart the pier for the scenic drive to Nha Trang, a lovely, serene little town spread out along the length of a beautiful sandy beach, with a backdrop of hills and rocky outcrops. Upon arrival, a stop will be made at Long Son Pagoda, founded in the late-19th century, and re-built several times since. It is adorned by an entranceway and roofs that are decorated with mosaic dragons made of glass and ceramic tile, and is currently home to fewer than ten monks. From the Pagoda, you will have an opportunity to climb the 152 stone steps leading to the giant white Buddha sealed on a lotus blossom. Superb views of the entire city can be observed from the platforms around the 40-foot-tall Buddha, which was built in 1963. Next, you will take picture of Ha Ra Bridge to photograph the abundance of fishing boats moored in the shallow Nha Trang Harbor. From the harbor, you will continue on to see the Po Nagar Cham Towers. Although now crumbling, the Towers are evidence of the ancient Cham civilization built between the 7th and 12th centuries on a site used for Hindu worship. Today, both ethnic Chinese and Vietnamese Buddhists come to Po Nagar to pray. You will then proceed to the center of Nha Trang for a visit to the Dam market, where you will find local produce, fruit, vegetables and seafood. After browsing through the Dam market, you can shop for souvenirs, then relax and enjoy a refreshing coconut drink at one of Nha Trang's beautiful beachfront cafes. Some time will be made here for a quick swim or sunbathing on the sandy beach. Your tour concludes with a stop at the beautiful XQ embroidery workshop of Vietnamese artists crafting their embroidered works of art before rejoining your coach for the return drive to the pier and ship.
NH02 - Nha Trang Countryside 	4 hrs	9:45 am	$52 adult _____	$30 child _____
Just a few kilometers from Nha Trang's beachfront is the picturesque countryside dotted with palm trees and fruit orchards. Here the local people go about their daily business, with farming and cottage industry traditionally the mainstream of their simple lives. The kindergarten is a delight to visit (weekdays only) with welcoming children who are only too pleased to see the smiles of a western face! The village path leads us to the home of one family who weave mats from rushes that grow abundantly in the surrounding area. We will have the opportunity to visit a local home - these are traditionally laid out in the same manner throughout the village. This countryside tour gives a fascinating insight into the "real lives" of everyday people who are the backbone of Vietnam. You will then stop at a local coffee shop to enjoy a coconut drink, and sample some locally-grown tropical fruit before going back to the ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 1 mile over even and cobblestone surfaces. Time permitting; guests will have approximately 10 minutes for shopping and browsing. Tour order may vary in order to avoid traffic congestion.

XY09 Nantian Hot Spring (no shopping) 	4 ½ hrs	1:30 pm	$35 adult _____	$25 child _____
Visit one of the most famous hot-spring places of Hainan: Nantian Hot Springs! This state-of-the-art center lies 20km east from downtown Sanya. It is the biggest, most modern open-air hot spring centre on Hainan and a unique health and wellness complex. It offers an impressive choice of pools of different sizes and shapes dispersed in a beautiful, luxuriant tropical setting. Try bathing in a coconut milk pool, a coffee pool, Chinese herbs pool, alcohol pool, etc. A local favorite is surely the "Nibble Fish" pool, known to remove the dead skin from your body and make it softer. This is definitely an experience you should not miss! There are also various swimming pools as well as a wide array of beauty and health treatments available (other treatments are not included). Spend an amazing afternoon at Nantian Hot Springs and let your body and soul be completely ampered! After this relaxing time, your coach will transfer you back to the Dadonghai area where you will enjoy some free time before transferring back to the ship. Note: Guests must be able to walk approximately 1 mile over various surfaces. Sequence of tour may change to avoid over crowding at venues.

Legend of the Seas®

June 4, 2011

Dear Legend of the Seas guest,

We are writing to provide you with important information regarding a modification to the departure process in Shanghai.

Recently, Royal Caribbean International was advised by the Shanghai Municipal Government Port Administration Bureau and Baoshan government that due to ongoing construction of the port, Legend of the Seas will not be able to use the Baoshan Wusngkou Terminal, as originally scheduled. Legend of the Seas will now use the Waigaoqiao Haitong Terminal for all sailings in June. This change is necessary to ensure that the current construction at the Baoshan Wusngkou terminal is completed by July.

Despite all our efforts to avoid this inconvenience, we were unable to have this change reversed. We regret this modification to your departure process was necessary, and thank you for your understanding and cooperation. This change of terminal will not impact your itinerary.

For those guests who have made arrangements for private pick-up, please ensure that your drivers are aware of the correct port address: Shanghai Port International Cruise Terminal, 500 Dong Da Ming, Road, Shanghai. Private vehicles will not be allowed to enter the port of Waigaoqiao, Shanghai.

Guests who have pre booked explorations and airport / hotel transfers will have their transportation provided for them.

All guests departing the Legend of the Seas will need to board transfer buses and be driven to the terminal building at Waigaoqiao Haitong. At this terminal officers will begin the Immigration and Customs process. Guests will then re-board the bus for their transfer to Shanghai Port International Cruise Terminal, where they will complete Customs process and retrieve their luggage. The transfer trip will last approximately 60 minutes.

Our staff in Shanghai will do their very best to minimize any inconvenience this modification may cause. The Officers, Staff and Crew onboard the Legend of the Seas have enjoyed hosting you on your cruise vacation and we look forward to seeing you again soon on one of our other Royal Caribbean International ships..

Sincerely,

Captain Sverre Ryan
Master
Legend of the Seas

Legend of the Seas®

Dear Legend of the Seas guest,

We are writing to provide you with important information regarding a modification to the departure process in Shanghai in addition to our As You Depart flyer.

As you are aware, Royal Caribbean International was advised by the Shanghai Municipal Government Port Administration Bureau and Baoshan government that due to ongoing construction of the port, Legend of the Seas will not be able to use the Baoshan Wusngkou Terminal, as originally scheduled.

Legend of the Seas will now use the Waigaoqiao Haitong Terminal for all sailings in June. This change is necessary to ensure that the current construction at the Baoshan Wusngkou terminal is completed by July.

As we will be approximately 60 minutes from Shanghai Port International Cruise Terminal all guests will be assigned a colored departure tag based on your flight times and post cruise packages. As all guests will be transferred and a portion of the Customs clearance will take place in Shanghai Port International Cruise Terminal all luggage other than hand carry luggage is required to be shipped to the terminal in bonded trucks, for this reason no guest will be allowed to board the transfer busses with checked luggage. Guests will initially board busses in Waigaoqiao Haitong pier at the ships side. They will be transferred to the terminal building where they will be seen by Immigration Officials and receive an entry stamp to China. Guests will then re-board the bus and be transferred to Shanghai Port International Cruise Terminal to retrieve their luggage and continue on their planned itinerary.

For guests who have flights before 1:00 pm on the day of arrival to Shanghai please contact the Guest Services Team at the Pursers Desk, Deck 5, before noon on our arrival to Hong Kong on Day 5 of this cruise.

Sincerely,

Royal Caribbean International

WISHES AT SEA

A vacation can do wonders on the spirit. You leave all your worries behind and live each day to the fullest. Imagine what it can do for a child facing a life-threatening illness. Through the Wishes at Sea program, Royal Caribbean International has partnered up with the Make-A-Wish Foundation to help give these kids a dream-come-true vacation. If you'd like to help, ask about donation cards.

ADVENTURE OCEAN YOUTH AND TEEN PROGRAMS

Vacationing with the kids? Chances are, you won't be seeing very much of them! The Adventure Ocean Youth and Teen Programs features non-stop fun for all age groups. Kids 3 to 11 will have a blast doing science experiments, wacky olympics, scavenger hunts and more! Teens 12 to 17 will have a great time hanging out in their own onboard spaces, and taking part in our great teen activities.

ROYAL BABIES & ROYAL TOTS

Even the youngest guests (6 months - 36 months) can dare to explore new horizons. Or in this case, new toys. The experts at Fisher-Price® have designed interactive activities, as well as a toy lending program. And since all babies are born artists, they'll have fun expressing themselves through our Crayola Beginnings art activities.

EXPLORER ACADEMY

Just think- 4 days from today, you could be wowing your friends back home with your new salsa moves and poker skills. Where else can you learn how to line dance...all in the same day? At the Explorer Academy, that's where.

FIND YOUR HAPPY PLACE

By now, you've made yourself right at home. You may know your way around, but have you found your groove? Have you tried that one thing that really puts a smile on your face...every single time? It could be as simple as sharing an ice-cream sundae-with a cherry on top-with your best friend. Or competing in one of the team sports like table tennis or shuffleboard. Maybe it's participating in a thrilling game of Roulette, or rolling you "R's" while dancing. Whatever your interest, it's probably a lot closer than you think. Check your Cruise Compass to find out all of the day's happenings and by all means, get your groove on.

DAY 3 Monday, June 6, 2011

NHA TRANG'S BEACH AND BAY ARE TRULY UNFORGETTABLE.

In Nha Trang, bright-colored blue and red fishing boats dot the most beautiful bay on earth. The coastline is just as spectacular, with rocky outcrops and rolling hills. Add to that, the most pristine beach in all of Vietnam, and you'll see why Nha Trang is so irresistible. During the Vietnam War, Nha Trang became a popular recreational spot for American sailors. And more recently, it's turned into a diver's paradise with its spectacular reefs.

The clear turquoise waters of the South China Sea are always just the right temperature for snorkeling, diving or just splashing around near the shore. At the beachfront cafés, you can sit back and relax with a cool coconut drink. While many come for the sun and surf, the ancient treasures nearby are also worth exploring. The Long Son Pagoda is beautifully adorned with mosaic dragons. Just as stunning is the ancient Hindu shrine of Po Nagar Cham Towers. And in the picturesque countryside, with its rice paddies and roaming water buffalo, you can really get a glimpse of the rustic way of life.

Treasure Every Second Of Your Adventure

- Cross over the ages. It's easy to get absorbed in ancient history here, but the colonial age is full of fascinating tidbits too. See how the town was shaped by foreign influences.
- Zoom in. With so much natural beauty around you, it'll be easy to find inspiration. Capture the moment up close.
- Spice it up. When it comes to using chili peppers, these guys don't mess around. The flavors burst in your mouth. But if you can't take the heat, be sure to ask for a milder version.

欢迎来到芽庄--让人无法忘怀的沙滩和海湾

在鲜艳的蓝色和红色的渔船点缀下的芽庄，是世界上最美丽的海湾。芽庄的海湾略呈流线型，水清沙幼。同样壮观的还有迷人的海岸线，环绕着崎岖不平的岩石和连绵起伏的丘陵。在越南战争时期，芽庄成为最受欢迎的美国水手的娱乐场所。而最近，芽庄则应为美丽的珊瑚礁成为了潜水爱好者的天堂。

碧绿清澈的海水，四季水温宜人，浮潜或者只是在海滩边嬉戏玩耍都是不错的选择。你也可以在沙滩边的小店点一杯椰子汁，懒洋洋的躺着享受一下日光浴，多么惬意的一个假期啊！装饰着有马赛克拼成龙状的长塔和古印度宝长史湛塔靖国神社都是芽庄著名的景点。

在风景如画的乡村，稻田，水牛和小河流，都可以让你领略到真正的田园生活！

Nha Trang

VIETNAM

GENERAL INFORMATION Nha Trang was the site of the ancient Cham culture and is the setting for one of the most alluring beaches in Vietnam. The city is situated on the coast of the South China Sea, about 30 miles (48 km) north of Cam Ranh Bay, and is the capital of the Khanh Hoa Province. Approximately 50 miles (80 km) north of Nha Trang is the beautiful Dai Lanh Beach. This beach is the most easterly point on the Vietnam mainland. The rocky islands off the coast of Nha Trang are home to sea swallows whose nests are used in the preparation of sea swallow's soup, popular both as a delicacy as well as for its medicinal properties. Nha Trang's dry season, unlike that of Ho Chi Minh City, runs from June to October. The wettest months are October and November, but rain usually falls only at night or in the morning.

This port city, with a population today of over 210,000, was established in 1924 and was a popular recreation spot for American sailors during the Vietnam War. The city is now Vietnam's closest answer to a developed tropical resort.

HISTORY The origins of the Vietnamese people are surrounded in legend. Recent finds indicate that the earliest human habitation of Northern Vietnam stretches back 500,000 years. The Chinese conquered the Red River Delta in the 2nd century B.C. and found a feudally organized society based on hunting and agriculture. Chinese settlers migrated into the area over the next few centuries and tried to impose a centralized state system. From the 1st to the 6th centuries A.D., the south was part of an Indianised Kingdom of Funan, which produced refined art and architecture. After the collapse of the Tang Dynasty in China in the early 10th century, the Vietnamese revolted against Chinese rule. In 938 A.D. the Chinese lost the battle of Bach Dang River, ending 1,000 years of Chinese rule.

France's military activity in Vietnam began in 1847, when the French Navy attacked Da Nang Harbor in response to Thieu Tri's actions against Catholic missionaries. After the death of Emperor Tu Duc in 1883, the French attacked Hué and imposed a Treaty of Protectorate on the Imperial Court. The Japanese overthrew the French government in Vietnam in 1945. During their short reign it is estimated that 10 million people starved to death due to the lack of rice. After the atomic bombs were dropped on Japan by the U.S.A., the Viet Minh assumed full control of the north, while other non-communist groups wrestled for power in the south. The Democratic Republic of Vietnam was formed in Hanoi in September, 1945. The Viet Cong was formed in 1960 to force the withdrawal of all foreign troops on Vietnamese soil. In 1964, North Vietnamese troops were advancing to the south. The regime in Saigon was becoming weaker and the peasants were disillusioned. The Americans made a full scale military commitment to the preservation of the South Vietnamese Government. During the Tet (Vietnamese Lunar New Year) Offensive of 1968, many major cities and towns were attacked by the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese Army. In 1975, North Vietnamese troops rolled into Saigon after a massive offensive and Saigon fell. In 1977, Vietnam entered the United Nations. The U.S. Trade Embargo against Vietnam was lifted in February, 1994 and full diplomatic relations were re-established in late 1995.

NHA TRANG POINTS OF INTEREST

1 Po Nagar Cham Towers, locally called Tap Ba, were built between the 7th and 12th centuries on a site used for Hindu worship as early as the 2nd century A.D. Today, both Vietnamese and ethnic Chinese Buddhists come to Po Nagar to pray and make offerings. The towers of Po Nagar stand on a granite knoll 1.25 miles (2 km) north of Nha Trang on the left bank of the Cai River. There were once seven or eight towers at Po Nagar, four of which remain today.

2 Long Son Pagoda or Tinh Hoi Khanh Hoa Pagoda as it is also known is a popular sight with tourists. Located approximately a third of a mile (500 meters) west of the railroad station, the pagoda was founded in the late 19th century and has been rebuilt several times over the years. The main sanctuary is an attractive hall covered with modern interpretations of traditional motifs. At the top of the hill behind the pagoda is the huge white Buddha, seated on a lotus blossom, which is visible from all over the city.

3 Pasteur Institute and Museum is found across from the beach on Phan Thu Street. Andre Yersin, a Frenchman, founded the Nha Trang Institute in 1895 to help research ways of improving Vietnamese hygiene and immune systems. Yersin is best known as being the man who discovered the cause of the bubonic plague. The library of Yersin has now been made into a museum.

4 Central Market or Dam Market bustles with activity. The market offers a variety of fresh fruit, vegetables and seafood – all colorfully displayed by local vendors. A selection of clothing and local handicrafts are also available.

Beyond Central Nha Trang

Cau Da is a tiny village about 3 miles (5 km) south of Nha Trang and allows for easy access to Mieu Island, where an interesting aquarium (Bao Dai) may be found.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Nha Trang and surrounding areas, we suggest you take one of the organized Shore Excursions. For further information consult your Shore Excursion brochure or contact the Shore Excursion desk. When going ashore, guests are advised to take with them only the items they need and to secure any valuables.

LOCAL CUSTOMS Bargaining: Bargain in either the local currency (Dong) or the U.S. Dollar. Bargaining should be good natured – smile, don't raise your voice or argue. In some cases you will be able to get a discount of up to 30%. Prices tend to be fixed in most large stores, but smaller shops will negotiate.

Tipping: Tipping is becoming increasingly expected in Vietnam, although it is not usually required. Government run hotels and restaurants generally add a 10% service charge.

Dress Code: Light cotton clothing is suggested. T-Shirts, shorts and jeans are suitable in most cases. For women, longer dresses and pants are the norm. The Vietnamese on the whole are very tolerant, but a show of too much skin is taboo. When visiting temples be sure to dress more conservatively. Slip on shoes (not open toe) are the easiest to get in and out of.

Avoiding Offense: Displays of emotion – from affection to anger – are considered crass and rude. Never show anger, regardless of the situation as most Southeast Asians abhor conflict. Don't touch the head of anyone, including children as it is a sign of disrespect. The feet are considered to be unclean. When seated, don't point them in anyone's direction.

Local Cuisine: The Vietnamese are particularly fond of seafood, but prepare chicken, beef, pork and vegetable dishes equally well. The proper way to eat is to take rice from the large shared dish and put it in your rice bowl. Using your chopsticks, take meat, fish or vegetables from the serving dishes and add them to your rice. Do not stick your chopsticks vertically into a rice bowl and leave them there as this is a classic Buddhist death sign. Pho is the Vietnamese name for the noodle soup that is a special favorite at breakfast. Lau, fish and vegetable soup; Bun Thang, rice noodles with fried egg and prawns; Ech Tam Bot Ran, frog meat soaked in batter and fried; and various vegetarian dishes are the most popular.

Drink Specialties: Vietnamese coffee is served French-style, brewed at the table. Vietnamese tea is inexpensive, but not particularly tasteful. Nuoc Dua (coconut milk) can be sweetened with sugar and is excellent on a hot day. So-Da Chanh (lemon soda) is the most prevalent. Coca-Cola and Sprite can usually be found as well. Imported beer is fairly cheap in Vietnam. Imports such as Heineken, San Miguel and Tiger are available in hotels and marketplaces. The local brew is 333. New local brands are emerging quite rapidly. Bottled water is recommended.

SHOPPING FACILITIES The main shopping areas are found in the center of Nha Trang on Nguyen Hoang Street and Doc Lap Street as well as along Nha Trang Beach. For souvenirs of the sea, (shells, stuffed scalife) you will find an abundance of kiosks in Cau Da. The Central Market carries local handicrafts, clothing, fruits and vegetables.

The specialties of the area include silk clothing, wickerware, jade, ceramics, antiques, carvings and books. Many tourist oriented stores and street merchants may accept U.S. Dollars. Most stores allow the use of major credit cards.

LOCAL CURRENCY The unit of currency in Vietnam is called the Dong (d). There are no coins currently in use. Notes are available in the following denominations: 200, 500, 1,000 and 5,000.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES The General Post Office (#5 on map) is located at 2 Tran Phu Blvd. near the northern end of Nha Trang Beach and one block from the Thang Loi Hotel.

The Nha Trang Telecommunications Center can be found at 2 Le Loi Street. Collect overseas calls will need to be placed by a Vietnamese operator.

Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 1.201.0288

MCI: 1201.1022 service only available from local post offices

Sprint: Not available

TRANSPORTATION Taxis may be available at the pier, but most are not metered. Taxi drivers will, for the most part, accept local currency and the U.S. Dollar. Fares and currency used should be negotiated with the driver before departing.

TOURIST INFORMATION The Khan Hoa Tourism Office is located at 1 Tran Hung Dao Street.

DAY 4 Tuesday, June 7, 2011

GET TO KNOW THE TROPICAL SIDE OF CHINA IN SANYA..

Perhaps you never would have pegged China for a beach locale—a spectacular one at that. And yet Sanya, at the southernmost tip of Hainan Island, boasts dazzling white sands and clear South Sea waters. Many people are just now discovering this tropical playground, but Sanya has been making history since ancient times. The Li people were the first to arrive some 2,000 years ago. The island has since welcomed the likes of exiled prime ministers, an enlightened monk and more recently, Miss World pageant contestants.

While sun and surf—and every water sport on the planet—are the main draw, there's much to see beyond the resorts. The journey into the Hainan countryside is an enchanting experience, but wait until you reach your destination. In one direction, there's the Li minority village, where age-old traditions are kept alive. In another, you have the mystical Monkey Island, home to a whole colony of rhesus monkeys. But if you decide to stay put on the beautiful beaches of Sanya, a traditional reflexology massage is never too far away... and guaranteed to make you feel rejuvenated.

Take The Route Less Traveled

- Travel on foot. Not only will you burn off a few calories, but you'll get to appreciate the sights of the city up close.
- Unravel the mysteries of old. You wouldn't be the first to try to decode the past in this mystical place. Put your imagination in overdrive as you learn all about a bygone era.
- Score a great bargain. As every savvy shopper knows, some of the best buys are where the locals shop.
- Be adventurous. Some of the best Asian fare can be found right on the street. Follow the aroma to the nearest street vendor and embark on a flavorful journey.

Back Onboard

1. Vitality Stretch Class

Feeling a little stiff? This is just what you need to warm up your muscles. 7:00 am, Legend Fitness Center, Deck 9.

2. Karaoke Party Time

Awaken your inner rock or pop star as you step up to the mic tonight at Karaoke. 8:30 pm - 10:00 pm, Viking Crown Lounge, Deck 11.

3. The Love and Marriage Game Show

Couples say the darndest things, and we've got the game show to prove it. Who knows? You may be the couple we're looking for as our next contestants. Check out all the hilarity with your Cruise Director, Fang. 9:30 pm, That's Entertainment Theater Deck 4

GET ENTERTAINED  Look inside for today's movie schedule.

CREW FUN FACT

By now, you've made your way through the ship and found plenty of ways to spend your day. But how does the crew pass their free time? Turns out there's a whole other world in the lower decks – complete with a gym, bar, internet café and cafeteria.

WHY NOT meet an old friend for the first time? The locals here are known for their hospitality. So go ahead...socialize.

第四日 周二 2011年6月7日 中文版CHINESE

三亚市地处中国海南省（海南岛）最南端。这里四季如夏，可谓三冬不见霜和雪，四季鲜花常盛开，素有“东方夏威夷”之称。这种气候最宜旅游休闲度假。全市面积1919.6平方公里，境内海岸线209.1公里，有19个港湾。主要港口有三亚港、榆林港、南山港、铁炉港、六道港湾等。主要海湾有三亚湾、海棠湾、亚龙湾、崖州湾、大东海湾、月亮湾等。有大小岛屿40个，主要岛屿10个，面积较大的是西岛、蜈支洲岛。三亚古称崖州，历史悠久，源远流长。据考证三亚落笔洞一万年以前就有人类活动；沿海一带还发现古波斯人的墓群。早在秦始皇时期设置南方三郡崖州是其中之一的象郡。因其远离帝京，孤悬海外，自古以来一直被称为“天涯海角”。名僧鉴真，宋代名相赵鼎和纺织家黄道婆等先后来过崖州，现在相关景点都有雕像以示纪念。三亚市是汉、黎、苗、回等20多个民族聚居的地方。全市总人口45.6万（城区人口13万人），其中黎族17.3万人，苗族0.3万人，回族0.6万人。各民族勤劳智慧，能歌善舞，创造了源远流长的文化艺术。少数民族仍保其特有的文化和风俗。浓郁的乡土气息，多姿的民族风情，多彩的民族艺术吸引了大批中外游客前来探访。

Sanya, Hainan CHINA

GENERAL INFORMATION Rising up like an emerald out of the South China Sea, 18 miles off the coast of the mainland...unique among all the provinces that conjure up our mental image of the ancient Middle Kingdom...the island of Hainan... China's only tropical jewel. In 1988 the island became China's 31st province. With its capital of Haikou, this "Gate of South China", sets strategically along the busy sea lanes that link the nation with many of its trading partners throughout the world.

One of the earliest ethnic groups to come to the island were called the Li. Their descendents still live on Hainan today. Now, after almost 2 thousand years of immigration, the Li have been joined by other groups such as the Miao, the Hui and the Han. Altogether, over 20 separate ethnic groups now make up the island's 8 million inhabitants. Centuries ago ending up on Hainan was not always by choice. It was not unusual for an intellectual, political rival or member of the Emperor's court who had fallen from grace to find themselves and their families banished to this remote island. To be ordered into exile, to an island we now regard as a tropical paradise, was not at that time seen as an act of kindness or mercy on the part of the Emperor. Life on Hainan at that time was very difficult and far from the pleasures and opulence of the Emperor's palace. In fact the island was called "The End of the World".

Today the situation on Hainan is quite different. In the late 80's China's central government established the entire island as a Special Economic Zone (SEZ), one of only a few throughout the country. This designation has given Chinese businessmen, together with foreign joint-venture investment partners, the incentive they need to build and grow and stimulate the economy. Status as a SEZ has had a positive effect on the island. Sanya, a city that was once little more than a fishin village, has now matured into an important international seaport an resort destination. And Hainan, an island that was once castigated as th end of the earth, has now become a warm and welcoming destinatio for tourists from around the world.

HISTORY Hainan was virtually unknown to Americans until 200 when a US Navy reconnaissance aircraft flying over the South China Se was forced to make an unauthorized emergency landing after collidin with a Chinese jet interceptor.

The ancient Chinese, however, have known about, been influencing tolerating, ignoring, defending, conquering, exiling to or opening u the island of Hainan...for the past 3,000 years. As far back as 100 BC during the Han dynasty, the island of Hainan first enters the histor books. But the island was inhabited long before then. Historians see to feel that the island was first settled by Austronesian people wh over 5,000 years ago, spread throughout the islands of the central an south Pacific as far as Hawaii to the east and Madagascar to the west.

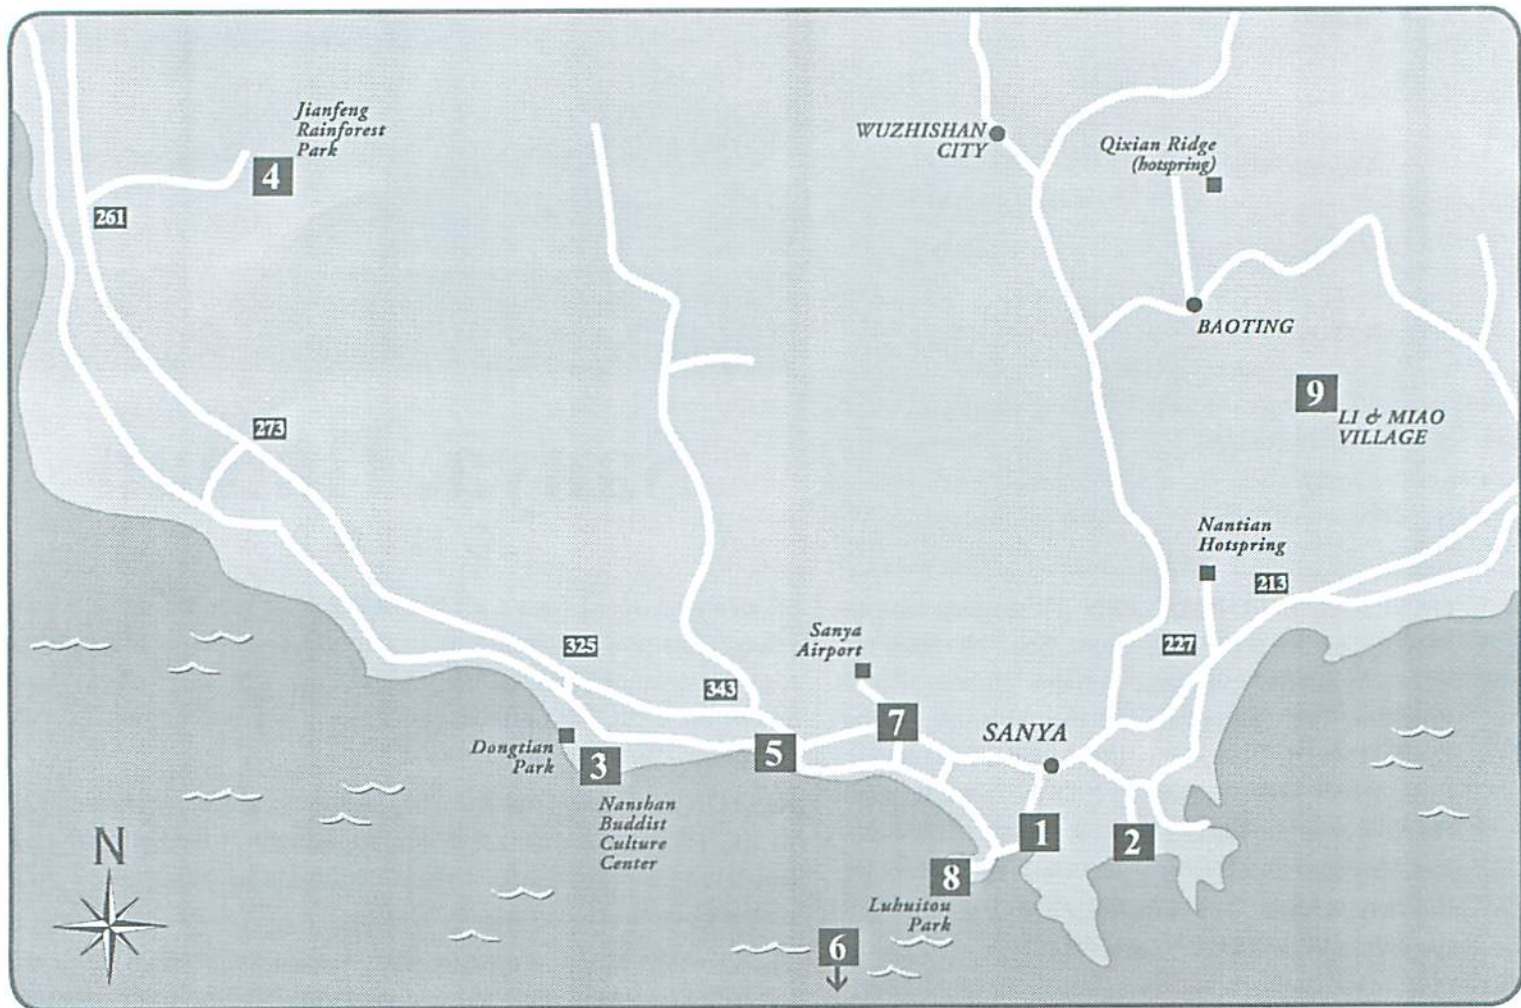

Archeologists believe the Li people from central and southern Chin crossed over to Hainan from the mainland during the Shang Dynast around 1,000 BC. It was some time before the beginning of the 1: millennia that the Han people, again from mainland China, began t make their way to the island where, as those who had come befor them, they fished the surrounding seas and farmed the fertile soil. Th influx of new immigrants resulted in the Li people moving into th central and southern mountains of the island. This was followed in the 1700's by the arrival of the Miao people from China's central plains.

Rice was introduced during the Song Dynasty around 1,000 AD. Due to the warm climate, abundant rain and good farming practices multiple crops were produced yearly. It was also during this period that beautiful hand-woven fabric, produced by the Li, was first exported to mainland China. With the quality of the craftsmanship and intricacy of design the cloth became popular and highly sought after. Though some distinct ethnic groups came to the island voluntarily, many Chinese rulers down through the centuries thought of Hainan as little more than a place of exile for those who fell from the emperor's favor...including a nationally beloved poet and a once and future emperor. By the 1800's merchants from Hainan were sailing their ships throughout the South China Sea. They were often welcomed to trade in foreign ports that sailors from the Chinese mainland were denied. Having been designated a province in 1988, China's smallest, and a Special Economic Zone, China's largest, today the island is home to over 39 distinct ethnic groups totaling 8 million people.

POINTS OF INTEREST

1 Dadonghai Beach is a beautiful white sand beach very close to downtown Sanya. There are plenty of water sports available and lots of palm trees if you just want to relax in the shade. Near the beach are a number of good bars and small restaurants. Being so close to the city this beach can get a bit crowded at times.

2 Yalong Bay is about 12 miles out of the city. In a word...stunning. Nearly 4 miles of clean white sand curve around clear blue water surrounded by lush green mountains. The bay is a protected marine reserve that offers great snorkeling and diving. There are plenty of tourist shops and small restaurants close by.

3 The Nanshan Buddhist Cultural Tourism Zone is actually three separate parks in one area all based upon the theme of Buddhism and Chinese culture. Nanshan, meaning South Mountain, overlooks the sea and is home to the parks. There are Buddhist temples, giant statues, cultural exhibits, lush gardens and ponds, all set in the mountain's tranquil tropical forest.

4 Jian Feng Ling National Park is a quiet and amazingly beautiful respite from more crowded tourist sites. Walking-paths wind their way along mountain sides covered by the only primeval rainforest in China. Bubbling streams tumble down the mountains on their way to the sea. The area is home to more than 40 species of birds. One bird in particular, a Warbler, was not discovered until the early 90's. There has been little serious scientific research in this ancient forest, consequently, a number of botanists and ornithologists believe there are unknown species yet to be discovered.

5 Tianya Haijiao is an interesting site on the ocean about 15 miles from Sanya. Huge boulders along the water's edge mark the area where it is said that many of those who had been banished from the mainland empire would come, with their broken hearts, and cast forth their hopes and dreams of returning someday. On one of the giant boulders is carved the Chinese characters meaning "Edge of the Sky" and "Corner of the Sea".

6 West Island is just a few minutes by boat from Sanya Harbor. This is a great spot to enjoy all your favorite water activities. The island has everything from jet skis, parasailing, and banana-boat rides to 4-wheel beach ATVs and an archery range. When you need a break there are plenty of shady palm trees and small restaurants that serve the freshest seafood. The island is also a popular snorkeling and diving location with rental equipment available.

7 The Jingrun Pearl Museum is a "must see" if you appreciate the natural beauty of saltwater pearls. The museum is nothing short of amazing. A visitor walks through the history of Chinese pearls...discovers how they are formed and cultivated, evaluated and categorized...and finally how a master craftsman uses them to create stunning pieces of jewelry. The museum is located in Phoenix Town, near the airport.

8 Luhuitou Park covers much of the peninsula south of Sanya. There are nice walking-paths near the sea with the mountains in the background. The park is named after an ancient Li folktale of a young hunter who cornered a deer on the peninsula. Before he could shoot it with his bow and arrow the frightened deer turned into a maiden with whom the young hunter fell deeply in love.

9 The Li and Miao Minority Village sits at the bottom of Five Finger Mountain in the town of Tong Zha in central Hainan. The village provides guests the opportunity to discover the rich cultural heritage of the indigenous people of the island. The buildings in the village represent the design, architecture and construction methods of many of the different local tribes. There are authentic presentations of tribal cuisine, costumes, music, song and dance that have been passed down by countless generations.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Sanya and surrounding areas we suggest you take one of our organized Shore Excursions. For information concerning tour content and pricing, consult your Shore Excursion Brochure or contact the Shore Excursion Desk. When going ashore, guests are advised to take with them only the items they need and to secure any valuables.

LOCAL CUSTOMS Bargaining: Most of the outdoor markets, street and beach peddlers will expect you to bargain. Be polite, fair and firm. In the larger stores, where prices are marked, bargaining is not common. If you negotiate a price you are willing to pay it is expected that you are going to buy the item. To reach an agreed upon price and then turn down the sale is seen as rude. If you are not interested in what the peddler has to offer decline politely yet firmly.

Tipping: This is not a custom in Hainan.

Local Cuisine: The most famous dish from the island is the popular Hainan Chicken Rice. The chicken gets its traditional and distinctive flavor by being fed banyan tree seed. It is cooked in a simple fashion with garlic, fresh ginger, cilantro, and scallions. Islanders have taken the recipe with them throughout Asia and around the world. On Hainan you will find all the famous mainland cuisines such as Xibei, Dongbei, Sichuan, Hong Kong and Hunan. There are some favorite local dishes as well. Wenchang Chicken originates from Hainan's Wenchang City. It is made from birds that have been bred and raised in the old traditional style. The meat is very tender and fresh. The broth from the dish is used to make the famous Hainan Chicken Rice. Hele Crab is known for its very hard shell and delicious meat. It can be baked, broiled or steamed and is usually served with white vinegar and fresh ginger. Jiaji Duck gets its name from the town where the ducks are bred and specially fed in order to produce their distinctive flavor. They can be steamed, baked or roasted. Dongshan Goat gets its fantastic flavor from being raised in the lush grass, fresh streams and natural surroundings of the Dongshan Mountains near Wanning City. The meat is prepared in a variety of ways such as boiled, steamed with coconut or roasted. 90% of China's coconuts are grown on the island of Hainan in the area of Wenchang City. It is understandable that coconut has found its way into many of the local dishes, soups, snacks and condiments. If you have a sweet tooth then try any of the variety of fresh coconut candies, jams and cakes. Besides coconut, Hainan is famous for its abundant selection of exotic and locally grown tropical fruits such as carambola, longan (dragon eyes), jackfruit, dragon fruit, pawpaw and litchi. The locally grown and ever-popular pineapple, guava and mango are delicious and readily available.

Drink Specialties: Pearl Milk Tea is a drink that was created in the 1980s and has swept the much of East Asia with its popularity. Sometimes it may go by the name of Bubble Tea. The drink mixes sweet iced or hot tea with milk. The pearls or bubbles referred to are little balls of tapioca or yam starch. Over the years countless regional variations of the drink have evolved. Ku ding Tea is a local health drink known for cooling down the body. It may seem a little bitter at first but it has sweet aftertaste. Lan Gui Ren Tea means "Lady Orchid". It is made by combining the tea leaves with liquorices grass and fresh ginseng. This tea is famous for its light floral aroma and sweet taste. Xinglong Coffee is served very sweet and it is quite well liked. Hainan is China's best coffee growing region. The Chinese have been brewing some form of beer for over 3,000 years. Yanjing, Hainan and Tsingtao Beer are the most popular Chinese beers on the island. Bottled water is recommended.

SHOPPING FACILITIES Due to the effect of the tourist market on Hainan there are a number of stores and vendors that openly sell endangered coral, sea-shell and sea turtle-shell products. The government of China is committed to protecting the reefs and sea life around Hainan. The Official Government Policy forbids these products from being taken off the island. Anyone caught trying to remove any of these products is subject to a fine and forfeiture of the piece.

Sanya is an island resort destination known for fun-in-the-sun, not for its major shopping bargains or opportunities. Most of the items available will be tourist kitsch; tropical shirts, hats, coconut carvings. There are, however, two items available on Hainan that are special to the island in terms of their well deserved reputation for quality, selection and affordability. The first is Saltwater Pearl Products. Larger, more colorful and rare than farm raised freshwater pearls, the Hainan saltwater pearls are used in the design and creation of a stunning variety of rings, necklaces and earrings. For centuries Chinese women have also used pearl powder as a beauty secret. Careful shopping and serious bargaining will be rewarded. The second local item for which the island is justifiably famous and proud is Hainan Silk. The handmade fabrics and clothes are produced by the Li. The well deserved reputation that the Li people earned for the quality and beauty of their work dates back as early as 700 BC. Many feel that Hainan Silk is the best in all of China. Hainan's capital city Haikou has a number of good department stores. Most of them are located on Haixiu Boulevard, downtown. Some of the local street and beach peddlers might seem a bit persistent. If you are interested in something they have to sell be prepared to put your "bargaining hat" on.

LOCAL CURRENCY The currency in China is the Renminbi (RMB). It means "The People's Money". The RMB is commonly referred to as the "yuan". Paper currency is issued in denominations of 1 mao (like 10 cents or 1/10 of a yuan), 2 mao, 5 mao; and 1, 2, 5, 10, 20, 50 and 100 yuan. Coins are issued in denominations of 1 mao, 2 mao, 5 mao and 1 yuan. Tourists can change their national currency and traveler's checks in banks. The Bank of China is most commonly used for exchange. Keep in mind, however, banks will not accept foreign currency that is worn, torn or defaced in any manner. Major credit cards are widely accepted in most tourist destinations. ATMs can often be found, but not always, in those same locations. If you see a Bank of China, there is usually an ATM nearby.

TELEPHONE FACILITIES Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 108.11
MCI: 108.12 or 108712

TRANSPORTATION If you are not on a guided bus tour, the best way to get around the area is by taxi. Try to come to a set price before heading to your destination. Do not accept their first offer. You may have to speak with more than one driver before you reach an agreement. Do not be surprised if the driver tries to raise the fare just before you reach your location. Don't be intimidated and fall for the ploy. Remain firm on the agreed to price.

For car rental, generally, all you will need is a valid driver's license and RMB 5,000 as a deposit.

TOURIST INFORMATION The Hainan Tourism Administration is located at 6 Haifu Road, Haikou. English speaking staff are available 24 hours a day to help with any problems or emergencies.

USEFUL WORDS AND PHRASES
There are many dialects on the island. Mandarin is Hainan's official language.

- Hello - Ni hao
- Good bye - Zai jian
- Thank you - Xie xie.
- You're welcome - Bu ke qi
- How much is it? - Duo shao qian?
- Too expensive! - Tai gui le!
- I don't need / want it! - Bu yao le! (This is the phrase to use when dealing with an overly persistent vendor.)
- I don't understand - Wo bu dong.
- Do you understand? - Ni dong ma?

Hong Kong

CHINA

GENERAL INFORMATION Hong Kong is more than just a shopping mecca. Its bustling harbor, towering skyscrapers and row upon row of shops may be its most familiar images, but Buddhist monasteries, terraced rice paddies and a 17th century walled village are equally important to its identity. In fact, most of Hong Kong's land is in the "New Territories," which are rural in character, and in addition, Hong Kong administers more than a dozen islands that provide a pleasant contrast to what's found in the densely populated urban areas.

In Cantonese, Hong Kong means "Fragrant Harbor." Hong Kong's 413 square miles (1,070 sq km) is divided into four main areas: Kowloon, Hong Kong Island, New Territories and the Outlying Islands. It is located off the southeast coast of China, just to the south of the Tropic of Cancer. In spite of its location, Hong Kong is not tropical. Summers are usually hot and humid, while winters are quite chilly. At present, Hong Kong has a population of approximately 5.8 million. This interesting city reverted back to Chinese rule at midnight on 30 June 1997. A vibrant mix of East and West, old and new, Hong Kong offers excellent shopping, restaurants and nightlife.

HISTORY Hong Kong's history began upriver, in the city of Canto (Guangzhou), where the British had begun trading with China in the late 17th century. The first trade attempts by the British were rebuffed by the Chinese, but Canton was finally opened to trade in 1685. By the end of the 17th century, the British, French, Dutch, Danes, Swede and Americans had a firm foothold in the region. Hong Kong Island and Kowloon Peninsula were ceded "In Perpetuity" to the British by the Chinese in 1841 and 1860, respectively, after China's defeat in the Opium Wars.

The New Territories were leased to Great Britain for 99 years in 1898. The colony soon became a center of thriving commerce and served as the main conduit for trade between China and the world. After 156 years of British colonial rule many, especially in the business community feared that the 1997 British handover of Hong Kong to China would bring about a mass exodus of people and capital, in effect, the death of this great city. Those fears have proved to be unfounded. China has been faithful to its promise of "one country, two systems".

Today Hong Kong is still one of the most dynamic, energetic and business minded cities in the world.

POINTS OF INTEREST

1 Ocean Terminal is a long wharf/building which juts out into Victoria Harbour. Within this complex you will find Ocean Centre, an upscale shopping mall. Along the waterfront is a small park which has benches and good views of the water.

2 Star House is a shopping "mall" located across from the Star Ferry Terminal. The Chinese Arts & Crafts store is located here. Many fast food outlets are to be found in this area.

3 Hong Kong Cultural Centre is adjacent to the Star Ferry Pier and is one of Hong Kong's landmarks. The complex contains a concert hall, a theater, an arts library, a garden and two restaurants. The Hong Kong Museum of Art is now incorporated into the Cultural Centre and houses a collection of paintings, calligraphy, rubbings, lacquerware, embroidery and jade. The Space Museum shaped like half a golf ball, is located at 10 Salisbury Road, adjoining the Cultural Centre. Here you will find the Space Theater (planetarium), the Hall of Space Science and the Hall of Astronomy.

4 Kowloon Park was once the site of the Whitfield Barracks for British and Indian troops. The park is hidden behind Yue Hwa's Park Lane Store on Nathan Road. The park is now basically "artificial," but the highlights include the Sculpture Walk, aviary, an indoor sports hall, fountains, concrete plazas, museum and multiple swimming pools.

5 Victoria Peak has been the place to live ever since the British moved in. The top of the tram line is 1,312 feet (400 meters) above Hong Kong and offers spectacular views and the three-level Peak Galleria, an excellent shopping mall. To reach Victoria Peak you should take the Peak Tram located at Garden Road, Central, behind the Hilton Hotel .5 mile (65 meters) from the Star Ferry Terminal on Hong Kong Island.

6 Aberdeen was once a quiet fishing village. Today this area houses a community of 6,000 people who live or work on junks anchored in the harbor. There are also three large floating seafood restaurants.

7 Stanley was home to 2,000 people when the British took possession in 1841. Stanley Market is the main attraction here and is open daily from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm.

8 The New Territories is considered to be Hong Kong's bedroom community. About one third of Hong Kong's population lives in this area in new towns which have been under construction since 1972.

SHORE EXCURSIONS To make the most of your visit to Hong Kong and surrounding areas we suggest you take one of our organized Shore Excursions. For information concerning tour content and pricing, consult your Shore Excursion Brochure or contact the Shore Excursion Desk. When going ashore, guests are advised to take with them only the items they need and to secure any valuables.

LOCAL CUSTOMS Bargaining: Bargaining is expected in Hong Kong's tourist districts, but less so elsewhere. In an honest shop, you shouldn't be able to bargain more than a 10% discount, if they will bargain at all. Price tags should be displayed on all goods. If not, watch out for price gouging.

Tipping: Historically the Chinese never had the habit of tipping, but Westerners introduced the custom and it stuck. Tips for hotel bellhops and airport porters are a must. Taxi drivers generally expect a gratuity. Good hotels and restaurants generally add a 10% service charge, but waiters and waitresses usually expect more.

Dress Code: Hong Kong is a very fashion conscious city and very cosmopolitan. Most items of clothing are accepted here. Flip-flop sandals should not be worn outdoors.

Avoiding Offence: Nude bathing at beaches is not allowed. Do not give a gift of white flowers except at funerals. Do not write anything in red ink as this conveys anger and hostility. Leaving chopsticks sticking vertically in a bowl is a bad omen as it resembles incense sticks in a bowl of ashes, a death sign. When handing someone an item, present it with both hands as a sign of respect.

Local Cuisine: Rice is an inseparable part of the Chinese culture and wasting it is practically a sin to older Chinese. Chinese meals are social events. Typically, four or five people eat together at the same table. The idea is to order many dishes and then share. There are many different styles of Chinese cooking: Beijing-Shandong, Sichuan-Hunan, Shanghaiese and Cantonese-Chaozhou. Cantonese is the southern variety and is what Hong Kong is famous for. Specialties are abalone, shark's fin soup, roast pig, snake and pigeon. Dim sum is a snack like variation consisting of small delicacies. Items are normally steamed in a small bamboo basket. You pay by the number of baskets you order. International restaurants abound in this food conscious city. Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, Malaysian, Indian, Italian, French, etc. are all easily found. European and American fast food restaurants are also readily available.

Drink Specialties: In Chinese restaurants tea is often served free of charge. Coffee is seldom available except in Western restaurants or coffee shops. There are three main types of tea to be found: Green or unfermented, Bolai or fermented (black tea) and Oolong which is semi-fermented. Most major brands of imported alcohol can easily be found in Hong Kong. Rice wine is more similar in strength to whiskey or rum than wine. Siu

Hing is a rice based wine, Go Leung is distilled from sorghum and Mao Tai is made from millet. Excellent beer is available everywhere and San Miguel even has a brewery in Hong Kong. Bottled water is recommended.

SHOPPING FACILITIES The main shopping areas in Hong Kong are found in the tourist zone of Tsimshatsui. Ocean Terminal, Ocean Centre and Harbour City are three of the largest complexes. The New World Centre is found adjacent to the New World Hotel on Salisbury Road. Stanley Open-Air Market is well known for its bargains in clothing, toys, luggage, souvenirs, and Chinese arts and crafts.

Specialties of the area include antiques, curios, appliances, electronics, carpets, clothing, jade and jewelry. Ivory is a popular seller, but be fore-warned that it is forbidden to bring ivory into the U.S., Canada, and many European countries. Beware of counterfeit items such as watches and designer clothing. Again, importing these items to most countries is illegal. Some tourist oriented stores and street merchants may accept U.S. Dollars. Most stores allow the use of major credit cards.

LOCAL CURRENCY The unit of currency in Hong Kong is called the Hong Kong Dollar (HKD). The Hong Kong Dollar is divided into 100 cents. Notes are available in the following denominations: 10, 20, 50, 100, 500 and 1,000. Coins are minted in denominations of: $.10, $.20, $.50, $1, $2, $5 and $10.

POST OFFICE AND TELEPHONE FACILITIES The General Post Office in Kowloon is located at 10 Middle Road, east of the Ambassador Hotel and Nathan Road. On Hong Kong Island, the GPO is on your right as you leave the Star Ferry. In Kowloon the local Telecom Office can be found at Hermes House, 10 Middle Road, Tsimshatsui (same location as the Post Office).

Dial the following access numbers to use a personal calling card:

AT&T: 800.96.1111 or 800.93.2266

MCI: 800.96.1121

TRANSPORTATION Taxis are available everywhere in Hong Kong. They will stop for you by raising your arm except in restricted busy areas. Credit cards are not accepted by drivers; U.S. Dollars may be accepted at a lower exchange rate. Hong Kong's extensive bus system will take you almost anywhere you want to go. In Central (Hong Kong Island), the bus terminal is on the ground floor of the Exchange Square. In Kowloon, the Star Ferry Bus Terminal is the most convenient. Hong Kong boasts one of the world's most modern metro systems, the Mass Transit Railway (MTR). This underground system is clean, fast and safe. Trains run every two to four minutes daily on three lines. Riding the line is easy, everything is automated – just follow the signage. One of the most scenic ways of getting from Kowloon to Central on Hong Kong Island is via the Star Ferry. The trip

光辉璀璨的维多利亚港湾

位于香港岛与九龙半岛中间的维多利亚海港不愧为香港最为珍贵的宝藏。这个前英国的殖民地曾经深深依赖这个深水海港为他们带来的航运经济效益。甚至直到今天，香港作为通往中南海的关口，仍旧发挥着国际货运港口的作用。而除了货运效益以外，维多利亚港本身迷人的风景，就吸引了全世界各地人们的目光。

如今的维多利亚港，既有数不胜数的摩天大楼作背景，又有怀旧气息浓郁的中国式的小船作点缀。但在夜幕降临以后，你会为自己站在邮轮甲板上而感到高兴不已。在我们缓缓驶入维多利亚港湾的时候，请尽情地将美景一收眼底吧！

充满期待

- * 看看当地的历史文化，你会变得完全不同。参观古老庙宇吧！
- * 给自己寄一张明信片吧！对，你是拍了不少的照片，但是收到一封从异国他乡寄出的明信片又是另外一种情趣呢！

DAY 5 Wednesday, June 8, 2011

VICTORIA HARBOUR IS DAZZLING AFTER DARK.

Nestled between Hong Kong Island and the Kowloon Peninsula, Victoria Harbor is truly one of Hong Kong's greatest treasures. The former British colony relied heavily on the deep, sheltered waters of Victoria Harbour for trade. Even today, as Hong Kong continues to thrive as an international center of commerce, its position on the South China Sea is key to its success. Commercial importance aside, Victoria Harbour is a feast for the senses, drawing visitors from all parts of the world to gaze at the stunning panorama.

By day, Victoria Harbor is dotted with traditional Chinese junk boats set against the backdrop of towering skyscrapers and green mountains. But once the sun goes down, you'll be glad you're on the deck of a ship. The skyline is a vision at night. As we sail through Victoria Harbor, enjoy the dazzling spectacle, a multimedia production of shimmering lights, music, fireworks...the whole nine yards.

Capture This Moment In Time.

- Pay attention to the details. From afar, the cityscape is a vision. But up close, you can really appreciate the architectural touches.
- Brush up on Eastern philosophy. Then find a quiet corner with a divine view to ponder your place in the universe.
- Eat your greens. Asia offers a myriad of choices for vegetarians. With so many exotic veggies around, you'll have lots to munch on. Try them steamed or stir-fried.

Back Onboard

1. Explorer Academy: Line Dance Class

The fastest way from point "A" to point "B" is a straight line, right? Not if it's one of the easy and fun line dances your Cruise Director's Staff will teach you for this afternoon's party. It's going to be crazy. 10:00 am, Anchors Aweigh Lounge, Deck 5.

3. Make-A-Wish Dancing under the Stars Deck Party

DAY 6 Thursday, June 9, 2011

FIND YOUR HAPPY PLACE

By now, you've made yourself right at home. You may know your way around, but have you found your groove? Have you tried that one thing that really puts a smile on your face...every single time? It could be as simple as sharing an ice-cream sundae—with a cherry on top—with your best friend. Or competing in one of the team sports like table tennis or shuffleboard. Maybe it's participating in a thrilling game of Roulette, or rolling you "R's" while dancing. Whatever your interest, it's probably a lot closer than you think. Check your Cruise Compass to find out all of the day's happenings and by all means, get your groove on.

- 1. It's Trivia Quest with a Twist. And You're Going to Flip.
Don't miss the Flip Video Camera Scavenger Hunt. If you like a game of Trivia Quest, you'll love our video version. Get a team together or come alone and join a team. All the fun starts in Anchors Aweigh Lounge, Deck 5 at 2:00 pm.
- 2. Battle Of The Sexes
Who is the dominant gender? Who will walk away with the bragging rights? Come find out.
8:15 pm, Anchors Aweigh Lounge, Deck 5 (PG13).
- 3. Rock and Roll Party
Travel back to a time when poodle skirts and bobby socks ruled and rock 'n' roll was sweeping the country - the 50's. How low can you go? Join the gang for all the dancing fun. 10:30 pm, Centrum, Deck 4.

Play Along For The Fun Of It

- Do a little social networking. Chances are there's a mix and mingle event going on right now.
- Get fit with friends. It's easier to stay motivated—and a lot more fun—when you exercise in a group. Check out the fitness classes onboard!
- Pamper yourself from head to toe. You deserve it. Visit the Day Spa for a full list of services.
