October 24, 2011

Dear Celebrity Millennium Guest,

I am writing to provide you with important information regarding modifications to our scheduled itinerary.

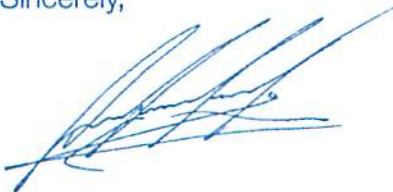

As you may be aware, Tropical Storm Rina which is located in the western Caribbean, has been upgraded to a hurricane and by tomorrow is predicted to become a major hurricane. We have been closely monitoring the path and progress of this hurricane and it is apparent that given the storm's current location and projected path, and according to the latest weather report, Rina is expected to produce rainfall amounts of up to 4 inches over the Cayman Islands and along the northwestern Caribbean. Therefore we consider a need to modify the itinerary in order to provide our guests with a more comfortable and happy sailing.

Celebrity Millennium will now spend tomorrow at sea, and visit Nassau, Bahamas, on Wednesday October 26th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The ship will return to Miami, as scheduled, on Thursday, October 27th. Guests who purchased shore excursions for George Town, Grand Cayman through Celebrity Cruises, will have those funds refunded to them in the form of an onboard credit. Our Shore Excursion staff would be happy to assist you with activities in Nassau.

I apologize for these modifications to our itinerary, and thank you for your understanding and cooperation. I would like to ensure you that our number one priority is your safety and your comfort.

I sincerely regret any impact the weather is having on our sailing. We will continue to closely monitor the hurricane and bring you any updates, should they be necessary. Despite the change in ports of call, the Celebrity Millennium team is committed to delivering an extraordinary vacation experience for you.

Sincerely,

Captain: Emmanouil Alevropoulos

Captain Emmanouil Alevropoulos, born in Athens, Greece and graduated from the Nautical Academy of Hydra Island and served as a rescue tug boat Captain for two years in the Hellenic Navy. He joined Celebrity Cruises in 1993 as an Apprentice Officer. He has been involved in the new building and launching of the Galaxy, Millennium, Infinity, Summit, Constellation, Solstice, Equinox and the two Azamara ships. His many responsibilities include implementing policies and procedures among all staff and crew. He is now delighted and proud to return as Master of the Celebrity Millennium.

Chief Engineer: Dimitrios Sakellariou

Chief Engineer Dimitrios Sakellariou is a graduate of the Hellenic Academy of Marine Engineering. Before joining Celebrity Cruises, he was assigned in the Greek Navy for two years and worked as well on board cargo and tanker vessels holding various engineering positions. He joined Celebrity Cruise Lines in 1996 and he worked in all class vessels within the Celebrity fleet. In 2002 he was a member of the New Building Team in St. Nazaire, France during the building of the GTS Constellation. Since then, he joined numerous times all Millennium Class vessels. He holds the position of the Chief Engineer since 2008.

Staff Captain: Damianos Xenakis

Staff Captain Damianos Xenakis was born in Athens, the capital of Greece. After graduating from the Greek Merchant Marine Academy of Athens in 1983, he started his career as an Apprentice Officer and 2nd Officer On cruise ships. He joined Celebrity Cruises as a 2nd Officer in 2003. Since then, he has served in various positions such as Chief Officer, Safety Officer and Staff Captain. Captain Damianos is the second in command of the vessel and holds the Master's licence. While on vacation he enjoys spending time with his family and friends.

Guest Relations Manager: Philip Holmes

Philip Holmes was born in Birmingham, England. To support himself while studying Business in college, he started working in the Hospitality & Catering Industry from the age of 16. In June 1999, Philip embarked on his first cruise ship holding the position of Jr. Purser, and quickly advanced to Chief Purser by the age of 24. Philip has recently joined Celebrity Cruises and is currently responsible for the Guest Relations Desk, Concierge, Group Events, International Assistance and serves as a liaison between Customs & Border Protection in all of our ports of call for the clearance of the vessel.

Hotel Director: Andrew Harris

"Over 900 crew members are committed to ensuring your ship board experience exceeds your expectations from your first meal with us, to our entertainment offerings and service levels. With 25 years of luxury hospitality leadership experience throughout the U.S., Caribbean, Asia, South America, Europe and the Middle East, I am confident our crew will do everything possible to make your voyage exceptional. We share our common goal - to ensure you have a safe and memorable cruise. Welcome to your Celebrity Life™!"

Cruise Director: Rich Clesen

Born and raised in Chicago, Rich always had an adventurous nature. In the 80's, Rich performed with the Second City troupe and gained a new respect for the theater and more specifically, comedy. He has been on stage ever since. In 1996, Rich took a cruise as a passenger and realized he had found his dream career. One year later, Rich was employed as an Activities staff member, then began climbing the nautical ladder and has been a Cruise Director for the last 13 years. Rich's home is in the Entertainment Capital of the world, Las Vegas. "Chicago is one of the greatest cities in the world, but they have to get rid of the winters."

Food & Beverage Manager: Michael Bramlett

Michael's passion for a career in the Hospitality Industry led him to a degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management from the University of Houston's Conrad Hilton School of Hospitality, an Associates Degree in Culinary Arts, and a BBA from Stephen F. Austin State University. In 1981 he entered the Cruise Industry. He's won nine Awards of Excellence from Wine Spectator and was inducted in 1992 into La Confrerie de la Chaine des Rotisseurs. He has resided on the West Coast of Florida since 1981. Michael is committed to deliver you, along with his talented Team, an unforgettable Celebrity Life™ Culinary and Taste experience.

Executive Chef: Prashant Wibhaw

Prashant was born in Ujain, a farmers village in the State of Bihar, where he graduated with a Culinary Degree from the University of Bihar. He worked in some of Mumbai's 5 star Hotels before joining the culinary team of Celebrity Cruises in 1999, in an entry level position. Now, as Executive Chef he makes sure to fulfill Celebrity's motto of providing the best culinary experience on the high seas. Prashant is interested in farming and has been experimenting with the development of various natural products, from farm house to culinary house worldwide.

Useful Celebrity Millennium Information

Please keep this page as a reference for the duration of your cruise
More information can be found in your Stateroom Directory of Services

Alcohol Policy: Guests must be 21 years or older to consume alcoholic beverages onboard.
Alcohol Purchased Ashore: All alcohol purchased ashore will be collected at the gangway and stored in a secure area. It will be delivered to your stateroom along with any other Duty Free purchases on the last evening of the cruise. Onboard consumption of alcohol purchased ashore is not permitted.

Corkage Fee: A $25 corkage fee (per bottle) will be charged in dining venues for wine bottles not purchased from the onboard wine list.

Deck Chairs: Use of poolside deck chairs is on a first come, first serve basis. Please refrain from reserving deck chairs so as not to inconvenience your fellow guests.

Dietary Requests: Guests who have special dietary requirements should contact their Assistant Maitre d' to address or confirm their requests.

Evening Dress Codes: Celebrity Cruises honors this grand sailing tradition and all guests are asked to follow the dress codes as indicated in Celebrity Today. Dress codes are in effect from 6:00pm in all restaurants and in the theatre during evening performances. Beachwear, Flip flops/ bare feet and baseball caps are not permitted in shipboard restaurants at any time.

Guest Conduct Policy: These guidelines have been developed to ensure the safety, comfort and enjoyment of all guests. Please ensure you familiarize yourself with the Guest Conduct Policy listed in the Directory of Services. Parents are required to be aware of their children's whereabouts at all times. Celebrity Cruises reserves the right to disembark any guest that is in violation of the policy.

Helpful Health Information: Celebrity Cruises, working in conjunction with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, has instituted enhanced cleaning procedures onboard all its vessels. You will likely see some of these activities during your cruise. Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu and gastrointestinal illness is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after rest room breaks and again before eating anything.

I-TV System: Order Pay-Per-View Movies, Room Service, book Shore Excursions and review your SeaPassSM Account through the Interactive Television System.

Inclement Weather: Please use handrails and keep to the right hand side of stairways. Use extra caution when walking on open decks as they may become slippery.

Medical Facility: The Medical Facility is open daily from 8:00am - 11:00am and 4:00pm - 7:00pm. One doctor and a nurse are on call for emergencies at all times. For serious emergencies please call Guest Relations at ext. 4313 or press the "Emergency" button on your telephone. All medical services are subject to charge (based upon posted U.S. medical rates).

Misuse of Drugs Act 1972: All persons going ashore are warned that it is a criminal offense to import or be in possession of narcotics and other controlled drugs (including marijuana). Local Authorities may come onboard to search the vessel to search for contraband. Penalties for drug offenders are severe. Guests travelling with prescribed controlled drugs must claim them with Customs Authorities.

Onboard Credits: Guests expecting credits to be applied to their accounts are asked to be patient as it may take up to two days for the credits to appear in our system. You can check onboard accounts via the Interactive TV System any time from the comfort of your stateroom.

Plumbing System: Please refrain from throwing anything other than toilet tissue into the toilets throughout the vessel, as this may cause damage to or block the vacuum waste disposal system. Appropriate waste receptacles are located in all staterooms and throughout the vessel for your convenience.

Protecting the Environment: At Celebrity Cruises, our home is the sea and we care for it through our ongoing commitment to environmental stewardship. We are also dedicated to ensuring the highest standards of health and safety for the welfare of our guests and crew, as well as our planet. The stringent quality controls found aboard each of our ships and practiced by every member of our staff, are a vital part of the Celebrity experience. We recycle our glass, aluminum, metals, plastic and paper. We have in place, throughout the vessel, labeled recycling containers for your use. We kindly request that you use them accordingly and thank you for your help in preserving the environment.

Save the Waves: Celebrity Cruises is committed to protecting the world's oceans and operates Advanced Wastewater Purification systems on its ships to treat all wastewater (toilets, sinks, showers, laundry, galleys, etc.). Please help us by never disposing of personal care products or medications into the ships wastewater system. If you must dispose of these items, please notify your stateroom attendant or the ship's Environmental Officer. They will ensure it is safely handled and disposed in accordance with all environmental regulations.

Secondary Screening of Luggage: All guests are reminded that luggage containing prohibited items such as sharp objects, knives, scissors and alcohol* are not permitted to be brought onboard. All luggage has been screened in the terminal and if any prohibited items are in your luggage, you may be called to collect your luggage onboard from our Security Team. All guests whose luggage has been set aside by Security will receive a voicemail to their staterooms advising where to proceed to identify their luggage prior to delivery. *Note: two bottles of wine will be permitted to be brought onboard on Embarkation day only, but may still need to be identified by guests upon processing through security.

Smoking Policy: Cigarette smoking is only permitted in designated outdoor areas of the ship. Cigar and pipe smoking is only permitted in designated outdoor areas (Deck 10 Aft Only). Violation of the smoking policy will result in a $250 fine and possible disembarkation from the vessel. All smoking materials must be properly disposed of and never thrown overboard. Guests must be at least 18 years of age to purchase, possess or use tobacco onboard.

Specialty Restaurant Reservations: Please dial ext. 4707 to make specialty dining reservations.

Stateroom Private Bar: For your convenience a private bar is located in your stateroom. All items consumed will be charged to your SeaPassSM Account.

Theater Video and Tape Recording Policy: Guests are reminded that copyright laws prohibit video and audio taping of all shows.

United States Public Health (U.S.P.H.) Regulation Information: Animal foods such as beef, eggs, lamb, milk, pork, poultry or seafood, that is raw or undercooked significantly increases the risk of foodborne illness to vulnerable and immunodeficiency guests.

No Food to be taken off the Ship: As per the Agricultural Authorities, food of any kind will not be allowed to be taken off the ship at any time.

Water: We would like to advise all guests to drink bottled water and avoid drinks with ice while on shore.

YEP (Youth Evacuation Plan): For the duration of the voyage all children aged 3-11 years must wear a YEP wristband indicating their muster station. Wristbands may be obtained from the Guest Relations Desk or from our staff in the Fun Factory. In the event of an emergency, children participating in the Youth Program will be escorted to their muster stations by our highly trained Youth Staff. Children will be supervised until they are reunited with their parent or guardian.

US Gaming Tax: For the duration While cruising in US territorial waters, Celebrity Cruises is required to report to the IRS all single slot jackpot payouts of $1,200 or more or any single other wager payout where the odds are 300 times the wagered bet or greater and the win is over $5000. There is no tax withholding for US citizens or US residents unless the winner fails to provide a valid social security number, in which case we withhold at a rate of 28%.

Non US citizens/ Non US residents will be subject to tax withholding of 30% on any single Slot Jackpot payout of $1,200 or more or any single other wager payout where the odds are 300 times the wagered bet or greater and the win is over $5000.

Non US citizens/ Non US residents will only be taxed if winnings are derived within US domestic waters and will be required to complete IRS form 1042-S.

Whenever a tax form is issued to the guest, a duplicate copy will be sent to the IRS.

Additional information about W2-G and 1042-S reporting may be found at <http://www.irs.gov/>

Dear Celebrity Millennium Guest:

For your convenience, we will automatically add gratuities for your restaurant and stateroom services to your onboard SeaPass™ account on a daily basis, which may be adjusted at your discretion. This convenient alternative automatically eliminates the need to calculate appropriate gratuities, any necessary currency exchange and relative cash handling, by following the renowned American Express guidelines for gratuities on a Cruise Liner.

We invite those interested to inquire by calling 4734 or visiting the Deck 5 of the Metropolitan Restaurant today before 4:00pm. For further information you are also welcome to ask any of our friendly Restaurant Staff.

Helpful Health Information

Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact, is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after rest room breaks and again before eating anything.

Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. Should you experience any gastrointestinal illness, please visit the ship's medical facility for a complimentary consultation and treatment if necessary.

Express Departure

We are pleased to offer Express Departure to guests who wish to expedite their departure off the ship in Miami, Florida. As per US Customs, this program is offered only to the first 500 guests. If you are interested in participating in this program, please contact Guest Relations Desk no later than 6:00pm tomorrow evening to register.

Wine & Celebrity Cruises

At Celebrity Cruises we believe that no meal is complete without the perfect wine. Perfection, of course, is in the eye of the beholder, but with over 480 wine labels fleetwide –far more than any other cruise line-, we are sure that you will find your perfect match. It is our mission to have the best wine lists at sea. We have spent many years working with wineries from around the world to add depth and value to our lists for our guests' enjoyment. Our 'Rare Wines' list boasts over 50 unique and extremely rare bottlings...some valued in the thousands. Unique wine events have been specially designed to enhance your cruising experience. Celebrity Cruises welcomes you to any of our luxurious restaurants, bars and lounges and invites you to come and enjoy a glass for yourself... cheers!

Shore Excursions

Tour Departure Details

Guests participating on a shore excursion are asked to refer to the departure time and location indicated on the tour ticket. We request that you assemble 15 minutes prior to the departure time and keep in mind that no announcements will be made. Please be on time and remember to bring your tickets and SeaPass with you. The Shore Excursions team will be on hand to direct you to the appropriate transportation.

Falmouth, Jamaica

Falmouth is the chief town and capital of the parish of Trelawny, Jamaica. It is situated on Jamaica's north coast 18 miles east of Montego Bay. It is noted for being one of the Caribbean's best-preserved Georgian towns. Founded by Thomas Reid in 1769, Falmouth flourished as a market centre and port for forty years at a time when Jamaica was the world's leading sugar producer. It was named after Falmouth, Cornwall in England, the birthplace of Sir William Trelawny the Governor of Jamaica who was instrumental in its establishment.

During the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, Falmouth was one of the busiest ports in Jamaica. It was home to masons, carpenters, tavern-keepers, mariners, planters and others. It was a wealthy town in a wealthy parish with a rich racial mix. This was the heyday of King Sugar. Within the parish, nearly one hundred plantations were actively manufacturing sugar and rum for export to Britain. Jamaica had become the world's leading sugar producer.

The streets are lined with many small houses known for their unique fretwork and windows, major merchant and planter complexes, and commercial buildings, all dating from 1790 to 1840.

Infrastructure Development: A new $180 million port was built to accommodate the newest and largest class of cruise ships, the Oasis Class. The port opened in early 2011.

Shore Excursions

Last minute tours for Falmouth are still available! Visit us at the Shore Excursions desk between 8:00am and 11:00am or see one of your Shore Excursions team members directly outside on the pier for last minute booking opportunities!

Easy Steps to Great Digital Photos

Would you like to be able to take great digital photos to show all of your cruise memories to your friends and family back home? Just follow these ten easy steps to success.

1. Select your Subject – any interesting person, animal or object will do.
3. Proper Lighting – if you are inside away from sunlight, it might be best to use your flash. If you are outside, your back should be to the sun and the flash should be off.
4. Use the 'Rule of Thirds' – your emphasis shouldn't be in the center of your photograph. Imagine a tic-tac-toe across your photo. The emphasis should be at one of the 4 points where the lines cross.
5. Steady your camera – if you or your emphasis is shaking, your photo will probably be blurry. Try holding the camera close to your body. Tripods are helpful, but if you don't have one, hold the camera up to your eye instead of using the LCD screen.

Shore Excursions

NS05 - Stingray Snorkeling & Beach Break

Enjoy a scenic 25-minute boat ride through Nassau Harbor to the private island of Blackbeard's Cay. This island features turquoise waters, swaying palm trees, and island music. Once you arrive on the island, you will join the stingray adventure, where you will be briefed on how to use the snorkeling equipment, safety tips, and details about the Atlantic Southern stingrays. Once in the water, meet these graceful rays face-to-face and enjoy snorkeling with the stingrays as they glide around you.

After your experience, enjoy the rest of the day on the beach or have a drink at one of Blackbeard's beach bars. Food and beverages are available for purchase at your expense.

NS71 - Atlantis Dolphin Cay - Deep Water Swim

This wide-open dolphin playground is yours to explore. Hand-held water scooters let you control your speed, so you can race alongside dolphins, cruise along the surface, or dive to the depths of their saltwater lagoon. Snorkels and masks are also provided. This one-of-a-kind interaction also includes the signature foot push, where your dolphin propels you across the lagoon on a boogie-board for a rush unlike any you have experienced.

The entire program lasts between 90-120 minutes and includes a video orientation and trainer talk, complimentary wetsuit use, non-alcoholic refreshments, personal locker, towels, beach service, and all-day access to Dolphin Cay's private beach. You can also view and purchase photographs of your dolphin interaction in the gift shop, and send free e-cards.

Top X Tips

- I. Exciting Shore Excursions
Make sure to book your shore excursion to discover the beautiful Bahamas. Deck 3 Midship
- II. What is the Easiest Game to Play?
It's Roulette of course. There is very little strategy, just pick numbers you like, bet on them, and if your number comes in you win. How much easier could it be?
- III. Balcony Doors
Keeping your balcony doors closed helps maintain humidity levels and keeps bugs and insects from entering your stateroom.
- IV. Live Your Celebrity Life
Test your knowledge with one of our fun, interactive trivia sessions or join our fun activities. Check the activities listing on page 3.
- V. Computer Classes
Join in on one of the onboard computer classes and enrich your vacation experience. Fees apply.
- V. Got Arthritis?
For arthritic knees, back, neck, hands, & feet, try Acupuncture. Stop the pain, and start moving with ease today.
- VII. Ionithermie
Exercise and nutrition isn't helping get rid of cellulite no matter how hard you try? Visit the AquaSpa and find out how, the easy way.
- VIII. Complimentary Consultations
Find out why BOTOX® Cosmetic is the #1 non-surgical cosmetic procedure. Consultations available from Dr. Aury Melo
- IX. Wave
For your videographer, be a celebrity in your Voyage and Review DVD.
- X. Today's Movie: Just Go With It
Comedy, Romance | PG | 117 min
On a weekend trip to Hawaii, a plastic surgeon convinces his loyal assistant to pose as his soon-to-be-divorced wife in order to cover up a careless lie he told to his much-younger girlfriend.

Nassau, Bahamas

Large lagoons and lush, tropical vegetation are indigenous to most of the islands. The weather is almost always beautiful, even in the summers when the temperature rarely rises above a pleasant 80°F. The Bahamas stretch for over 500 miles in a southeasterly configuration, from about 60 miles off Florida to 100 miles north of Haiti.

Early History: The islands remained a possession of Spain until the early 1600s, when England formally claimed them. During the next two centuries, the hundreds of islands became ideal marauders' grounds with their endless hiding places along the thousands of miles of coastline. Piracy was suppressed in 1718 by former-pirate-turned-governor Woodes Matthews, and the area enjoyed a century of peace.

The most visible difference between then and now is the graceful arched bridge connecting Nassau with Paradise Island, with its grand hotels, dazzling beaches, continental restaurants, and glitzy gambling casino.

Shore Excursions

NSE9 Atlantis Ultimate Tour

You'll start your Deep Water Swim at Dolphin Cay. Enjoy this one-of-a-kind dolphin experience that is limited to just six guests as you control your speed with hand-held water scooters so you can race alongside dolphins, cruise along the surface, or dive to the depths of their saltwater lagoon. Use the snorkels and masks that are provided. Feel a rush unlike any other with the signature foot push, where a dolphin propels you across the lagoon on a boogie board. Enjoy all-day access to Dolphin Cay's private beach. Continue your day at Aquaventure, the only water park of its kind in the world. This 141-acre aqua-adventure features The Power Tower and Mayan Temple offering eight high-speed body and inner tube slides.

NS85 Atlantis Shallow Water Dolphin and Aquaventure

Enjoy a day of water fun at Atlantis! Explore Dolphin Cay and play with dolphins in one of the newest and largest dolphin habitats in the world and home to the world-famous "Katrina" dolphins. Personally meet and connect with dolphins in a 30-minute in-water interaction where you will touch, hug, and even kiss these amazing animals in groups of no more than 10 guests. Enjoy all-day access to Dolphin Cay's private beach. Your day continues at Aquaventure, the only water park of its kind in the world. This 141-acre aqua-adventure features The Power Tower and Mayan Temple offering eight high-speed body and inner tube slides, numerous children's water play activities, relaxing pools, beautiful white sand beaches, and a mile long action river ride that you do not want to miss out on! Experience white water rapids, rolling waves, gentle currents, themed caves, and never before seen special effects as you float along in a single or double tube.

Information

Your Feedback Counts

Now it's your turn. It has been our utmost pleasure to serve as your host for this voyage. We hope it has been memorable in so many positive ways - - and here is your chance to let us know. Each stateroom on board will be provided with one guest Questionnaire tonight. Please take time to fill this out, and deposit them in the boxes in front of the Guest Relation Desk. To preserve the integrity of these Questionnaires, shipboard staff is not permitted to handle them once they have been delivered to you. Please remember to include your name and stateroom number on top of this form in the space provided.

Disembarkation Procedures

Please take a few minutes of your day to watch the brief, but informative program about our disembarkation process. Your Cruise Director & Guest Relations Manager will explain everything from luggage handling, disembarking and your Seapass Account. This is being shown on Channel 15.

Statement of Charges

You will receive your final statement this evening. For your convenience, you can also view your statement on your interactive TV from the comfort of your stateroom. If you have any discrepancies you can contact our Guest Relations Desk prior to 10:00pm this evening for assistance.

Service Gratuities

If you wish to make adjustments with the service gratuity, please contact Guest Relations Desk today, no later than 12 Noon.

Farewell

The Master of Celebrity Millennium, Captain Emmanouil Alevropoulos and the entire crew wish all of our guests a safe arrival to your final destinations. It has been a pleasure serving you. We bid a fond adieu to you all, and look forward to welcoming you back on board one of our Celebrity Cruises' vessels in the very near future. We hope you have enjoyed your cruise.

Miami, Florida, USA

Miami is located in southeast Florida, between the Everglades and the Atlantic Ocean. Miami's nickname, "The Magic City", comes from its rapid growth. Winter visitors remarked that the city grew so much from one year to the next that it was like magic.

No other city in the United States is like Miami. Since its incorporation in 1896, Miami has grown tremendously. The city has gone through times of turmoil and triumph. However, its increasingly diverse population has been able to turn a tourist-oriented city into a glowing, cosmopolitan, international metropolis.

Brief History

Miami holds the distinction of being the only major city in the United States founded by a woman, Julia Tuttle, who was a local citrus grower. The Miami area was better known as "Biscayne Bay Country" in the early years of its growth. Julia Tuttle subsequently convinced Henry Flagler, a railroad tycoon, to expand his Florida East Coast Railroad to the region. Miami was officially incorporated as a city on July 28, 1896 with a population of just over 300.

After Fidel Castro rose to power in 1959, many Cubans sought refuge in Miami, significantly increasing the population. In the 1980s and 1990s, various crises struck South Florida - among them, drug wars, Hurricane Andrew, and the Elián González case. Nevertheless, in the latter half of the 20th century, Miami became a major international, financial, and cultural center.

Highlights

Miami is celebrated for its white sandy beaches, azure waters, tropical breezes, sunny skies and dazzling year-round weather. The city features tantalizing cuisine, pulsating nightlife, endless shopping and exhilarating outdoor activities. Highlights include:

- Miami MetroZoo: Miami's state of the art animal kingdom.

- Miami Seaquarium: a 35-acre oceanarium that features killer whales, sea lions, dolphins and sharks, along with many other salt-water species.

- Jungle Island: offers shows and exhibits featuring tigers, orangutans, reptiles, talking parrots and other wildlife.

- Vizcaya Museum and Gardens: this extraordinary European-inspired estate includes a native forest and a historic village, all on ten acres of gardens that overlook beautiful Biscayne Bay.

- Everglades National Park: take a guided airboat tour to spot alligators, soft-shelled turtles, and exotic wading birds.

- South Beach: world-famous, this section of Miami Beach features the "Art Deco District", a community of 1920s and 1930s architecture. This historically restored section of the city is the center of Miami's nightlife.

Whether you choose to dance the night away, enjoy mouth-watering new taste-sensations at a local gourmet restaurant, take in an exciting sporting event, get a taste of the arts, embark on a shopping adventure or simply lay on the beautiful beach... your time in Miami is sure to be full of fun-filled activity.

Important Disembarkation Information

Comment Cards

Celebrity Cruises is conducting a special survey of our guests' opinions of Celebrity Millennium. Please fill out the Comment Card that has been placed in your stateroom. Please Note: There is one comment card per stateroom. Guests are kindly requested to deposit the completed cards in the box at the Guest Relations Desk in person. Completed Comment Cards are not to be handled by shipboard employees. We look forward to hearing from you.

Disembarkation

In order to make your disembarkation procedure more comfortable, no announcements will be made in the morning during disembarkation. We ask that you kindly follow the instructions on your individual disembarkation letter that was provided with your luggage tags in your stateroom. Please proceed to the meeting lounge promptly

Reminders

Please remember the following:

- Check all closets and drawers to make sure you have left nothing behind.
- Please remove all items from your stateroom safe.
- If you have lost anything please inquire at the Guest Relations Desk.
- All casino chips or tokens must be redeemed before the end of the cruise. These items are not redeemable by mail.
- Please return all library books to Guest Relations, Deck 3 or to your stateroom attendant.

Accounts Settlement

Guests with a Credit Card That Was Validated At Embarkation:

...are not required to contact the Guest Relations Desk, as charges have been billed automatically to your credit card company.

Guests with Cash Or Travelers Checks:

...will receive a note in their stateroom requesting them to settle their account on Thursday evening at the Guest Relations Desk, Deck 3 (open 24 hours). Please note that you may continue using your SeaPass™ Card during late evening hours, and settle your account again by cash and travelers checks (both ONLY in U.S. Dollars) on the morning of disembarkation until 9:00am. Due to end of cruise accounting procedures, all accounts must be closed by 8:30am the morning of your debarkation. Should you have any inquiries after you have settled your account, please ensure to contact the Guest Relations Desk no later than 9:00am the morning of your debarkation. After this time we are not able to make any changes into your account.
